Herbert Hoover Is Near Death

Outlook Is Called Grave

NEW YORK (UPI) — Former President Herbert Clark Hoover hovered near death today. He entered a state of "unresponsiveness" and his doctors said the outlook is grave.

The massive internal bleeding that struck the 90-year-old 31st president late Saturday was stopped. But doctors said that even though the blood was replaced by transfusions, the loss allowed "toxic products" to build up and poison his blood stream.

POISON DANGER

The chances of successfully clearing the poison from his system were not good, the doctors said.

A late bulletin said:

"Mr. Hoover had a comfortable night but remains seriously ill. His blood pressure, pulse and heart rate remain stable. The gastro-intestinal bleeding has been arrested and his blood count has been restored to normal.

"However, the massive loss of blood into his gastro-intestinal tract has resulted in the accumulation of toxic products in his bloodstream which have induced a state of unresponsiveness. Efforts have been undertaken to clear his system of these toxic elements but the outlook is grave."

'GOOD FIGHT'

The medical bulletin was signed by Dr. Michael J. Lepore, Hoover's chief physician.

Both of Hoover's sons, former Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr., and Allan Hoover, were at his bedside.

The former president was being treated in his suite at the Waldorf Towers where he has lived for 30 years. There were no plans to move him to a hospital.

"Mr. Hoover is making a very good fight of it, of course," an aide said. But he pointed out that Hoover is 90.

When Hoover's latest illness struck—his fourth serious setback in two years—his doctors said he was making a "remarkable" fight for life for a man of his age.

Hoover had a malignant tumor removed from his intestines in August, 1962. In June, 1963, he was stricken with internal bleeding and anemia. When he recovered, doctors said it was "miraculous." Last February,

Contractor Arrested For Tractor Theft

Gerald Kott, Mill Valley, Faces Charges

Gerald Culver Kott, 39-year-old Mill Valley building contractor who was accused in 1958 of theft of records in Marin County, was arrested Saturday evening in the alleged stealing of over $14,000 worth of equipment including a "back-hoe" tractor.

He is accused of taking the tractor, valued at $7,500, a $2,000 trailer, and a mobile air compressor with $5,000. Kott, free on $1,100 bail, was scheduled for arraignment on a grand theft charge this afternoon in Marin Municipal Court. No formal complaint had been filed by noon, however.

STOLEN ITEMS

Sheriff's Inspector Harold Sleezer said the sheriff's office received a call late Saturday that the stolen items were seen in an isolated area at the end of Ridgewood Road in Homestead Valley.

Deputies were dispatched and said that on their arrival they found Kott, of 361 Cascade Drive, standing behind the compressor unit. Nearby, they said, were the trailer and tractor.

Inspector Sleezer said serial number plates on the tractor had been changed, but there were sufficient markings to identify it as that stolen about Sept. 17 from a pile-driving construction site at the west end of Richardson Bay on Highway 101. It is owned by the Northwestern Pacific Railroad.

JAR OF LIQUID

A jar of liquid believed to be paint remover was also near the tractor, the officer said.

Officers said the trailer and air compressor, both owned by Elmer J. Freethy Construction Co. of El Cerrito, were allegedly stolen sometime between Sept. 27 and Oct. 1 from the Coyote Creed flood project near Tennessee Valley Road in Tamalpais Valley.

Kott was arrested in March of 1958 in the theft of 26 files from the Marin County building inspector's office. Police said the missing files included those dealing with homes Kott built in Mill Valley.

However, Kott was also charged with stealing records from the Veterans Administration office in San Francisco and on June 26, 1958, pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court.

He served 18 months in federal prison.

Joseph Albanese Succumbs At 55

Private funeral for Joseph Albanese, San Rafael insurance underwriter, teacher and former member of the San Rafael Board of Education, was held today at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, San Rafael.

Albanese, 55, of 26 Alta Vista Way, died Saturday at a local convalescent hospital, a victim of cancer.

A native of Rumford, Me., he hitch-hiked in 1926 to California. He made it from Portland, Me., to Los Angeles in 27 days, paying his way by chopping wood, working in hay fields and moving furniture.

He later related that he had left home because his father wanted him to be a blacksmith, while he had other plans, principally teaching foreign languages.

He worked his way through University of California at Los Angeles by tutoring in French and Spanish and translating historical material. He was graduated in 1930, and later did graduate work at the university's Berkeley campus.

His fluency in French, Spanish, Italian and Portuguese led him to serve as interpreter in Marin court cases since 1940.

He taught English, history and foreign languages at San Rafael High School from 1940 to 1946, and served on the board of education from 1949 to 1953. He served twice as chairman of the local Heart Fund Sunday.

In 1942, Albanese began a 22-year career as agent for the New York Life Insurance Co. in San Rafael. He was a charter member of the Marin County Life Insurance Underwriters.

JOSEPH ALBANESE
Cancer fatal

Surviving are his wife Margaret Albanese of San Rafael; a daughter, Mrs. Gay Petretti of San Rafael, and a sister, Mrs. Frances Vermiglio of Saratoga, Santa Clara County.

A memorial service will be held at 8 p.m. Wednesday at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Inurnment was private.

Tributes may be contributions to the American Cancer Society.

Networks Say No To Burch's Time Demands

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The three major television networks turned down a Republican demand that Barry M. Goldwater be given equal time to answer President Lyndon B. Johnson's broadcast on world affairs last night.

ABC, CBS and NBC said they did not consider Johnson's address subject to the equal time requirement because it was not political in nature. (See also story, page 2).

NBC offered GOP National Chairman Dean Burch 15 minutes of free television time "to express the Republican viewpoint on international developments."

Burch charged today that the Democratic National Committee also had tried unsuccessfully to purchase time for the broadcast. When it failed, Burch said that Johnson had "demanded" the free time and the networks had given in.

White House press secretary George E. Reedy and the Democratic National Committee denied the charge. They said the program had been arranged routinely by the White House. Network spokesmen said they had no knowledge that the Democrats first sought to purchase time for the President's broadcast.

Span's Worst Crash Kills San Rafael Man, 3 Others

Four persons, including a 27-year-old San Rafael man, were killed in the grinding head-on crash of two cars near the center of the Golden Gate Bridge at 7:05 p.m. Saturday.

The crash, worst in the bridge's history, orphaned three small children and left a 32-year-old Pleasant Hill man in critical condition.

Meeting squarely in the inside northbound lane 300 feet north of mid-span, the two cars crashed with such force that the two windshields nearly touched each other.

Another car crashed into the wreckage seconds later, but its driver was unhurt.

Killed were the only occupant of the southbound car, Robert Raymond Thatcher, 27, of 216 Marin Street, Apt. 8, San Rafael, and three of the four persons in the northbound car.

The California Highway Patrol identified these as Norman K. Schanuel, 32, of Concord; his wife Jeane, 30, and Mrs. Ellen DeAnne Fox, 30, of Pleasant Hill.

Mrs. Fox's husband, Robert Fox, 32, was in critical condition today at San Francisco General Hospital, suffering from compound fractures of his right leg and left arm and deep facial cuts. Internal injuries were also suspected.

Not injured was Wendell Lawson Jones, 56, of 256 Richardson Drive, Strawberry, who had been following the car driven by Schanuel in the northbound lane. The patrol said his station wagon plowed into the wreckage immediately after the crash.

A witness, Carole Woodworth of 9 Sheila Court, San Anselmo, told the highway patrol she followed Thatcher's car from a point near the Corte Madera overpass. She said it weaved across all three southbound lanes several times and repeatedly slowed, sped up and slowed again.

On the Waldo Grade approach to the bridge, she reported, the Thatcher car hit a center railing and bounced into the outside lane. On the bridge itself, it struck the right curb once and moved across into the northbound lane for a few seconds, she said.

Miss Woodworth said she continued to follow the car until it again moved across and crashed into the Schanuel auto.

The accident tied up all traffic on the bridge for about 20 minutes, when patrolmen began diverting cars to the southbound line.

October Heat Wave May Be On The Way

A late October heat wave appeared today to be building up in Marin County and most of North and Central California.

A high fire danger warning was sounded today by County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom, who asked residents to be extremely careful with incinerator and barbecue fires.

The day was balmy and almost breezeless at times in Marin yesterday, with temperatures ranging from 79 in Sausalito and on Mount Tamalpais, to 89 in San Anselmo. Other high readings were 85 in San Rafael, 83 in Woodacre, 80 in Novato and Fairfax.

The weather bureau predicted hot dry weather will continue and added that there is no rain in sight this week. The weather is the result of an unusually intense center of high pressure over the central third of the state.

Forecaster W. J. Denney of the bureau's San Francisco office said "This high pressure area is practically stationary so that warm dry weather . . . will continue."

At 11 a.m. today temperatures were proving him right with San Rafael reading 78, San Anselmo, 76, Mount Tamalpais, 75, Pt. Reyes Station, 73, Novato 71, and Fairfax, 70.

The Bay Area Air Pollution Control Center said that high smog levels were expected again today.

NEW YORK (AP) — Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. today was elected a director of the Royal Crown Cola Co. The company said he soon will announce his retirement from the Marine Corps.

Glenn is recovering in Houston from a head injury suffered in a fall in Ohio last spring. A company spokesman said "his recovery is now virtually complete."

No salary was announced, nor were Glenn's specific activities detailed.

Shoplifters Make Profit In San Rafael, Corte Madera

San Rafael police today sought a pair of nervy daylight thieves who walked off Saturday with $188 worth of goods from the Davis Saw Service, 807 Francisco Boulevard.

One of them was also believed to have made a tour of stores in the Corte Madera Shopping Center the same day, shoplifting items and bringing them back for refunds.

At the saw firm, San Rafael police said, one man talked to employees while the other apparently looked for things to steal. The latter picked up several expensive items and was seen putting them down again when he noticed employees or customers watching.

Later the second man picked up a saw and started to walk out the front door with it. When a woman in a parked car told him to put it back, he dropped it and ran. His companion, however, left the store with a $130 air impact wrench and a $55 sander.

Tentative identifications led police to believe one of them was the same man who called himself Michael Hall of Petaluma when he obtained $59.65 in re-

Woman Grabbed Off Bridge Rail

A 55-year-old woman was grabbed by a Golden Gate Bridge maintenance worker as she climbed the bridge rail during this morning's commuter rush.

Jack McMillan, a bridge employee, saw her climbing the rail, ran to her and dragged her back.

At San Francisco General Hospital where she was taken for observation, she was listed as Mrs. Eula J. Green of 404 Hillside Dr., Woodside, San Mateo County.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Highest Russ Officer Dies In Crash

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UPI)—Marshall Sergey Biryuzov, Russia's highest military officer, and 17 others were killed today when a Soviet Ilyushin 18 airliner crashed into a mountain as it was preparing to come for a landing.

Biryuzov

There were no survivors.

Biryuzov, 60, was chief of staff of the Soviet Arm Forces and first deputy minister of defense. He was also a member of the central committee of the Communist Party.

He was leading a delegation to ceremonies marking the 20th anniversary of Belgrade's liberation from the Nazis. All other passengers aboard were veterans of that campaign.

The Yugoslav Tanjug News Agency said all performances and festivities marking the anniversary had been canceled.

The news agency said the airliner smashed into 1,700-foot Mount Avala, 10 miles east of Belgrade.

Another Auto Firm Settles

DETROIT (AP) — American Motors Corp. and the United Auto Workers Union reached agreement today on a new three-year contract covering AMC's 24,000 automotive division employees and continuing profit sharing.

Left hanging, however, was agreement on a new pact that would cover 3,000 in AMC's Kelvinator appliance division at Grand Rapids, Mich.

A continuing walkout there conceivably could cut off the company's automobile building. Doors and fabrics for cars are made there, as well as refrigerators and the like.

Cuban Exiles Active Again

MIAMI (UPI)—The Cuban exile camp was alive with rumors today, touched off by rapid fire developments. These included the theft of 500 pounds of dynamite here last night and a Cuban radio broadcast that a plane loaded with arms had landed on the Communist island.

The two incidents were not directly related since the broadcast was monitored here shortly before the dynamite was stolen from an explosives manufacturer by two armed men who said it was "for Cuba."

According to the broadcast, the crew of the plane escaped before it was confiscated at a small airport at Pilon, a sugar mill town on the southern coast of Oriente Province.

PRESIDENT WARNS OF ATOM SPREAD

Calls On Red China To Join Test Ban; Sees Good Start In U.S.-Russ Relations

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson was to tell congressional leaders today that the United States has made a "good beginning" in relations with the new leaders of the Soviet Union and hopes the Kremlin will join in renewed efforts to block any further spread of nuclear weapons.

Johnson stressed both these points last night in a report to the nation in which he also spoke of the possible use by Red China of "nuclear blackmail" against other countries, now that it has exploded its first test bomb.

He warned, furthermore, that what he calls China's "expensive and demanding effort to build nuclear weapons tempts other states to equal folly — nuclear spread is dangerous to all mankind."

The president announced that the U. S. will continue to support the limited nuclear test-ban treaty which the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain and more than 100 other nations signed last year. France and Communist China did not sign.

"We call on the world — especially Red China — to join the nations which have signed that treaty," Johnson said.

Johnson's reaction to the ouster of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and it significance for the United States, as he sees it, covered both the possibility of dangerous future crises and the hope that the new Kremlin leaders will undertake new measures to strengthen world peace.

Khrushchev was suddenly ousted Thursday and replaced by two men who share the power which he held alone — Communist party leader Leonid I. Brezhnev and Premier Alexei N. Kosygin.

In his address Johnson had words of praise as well as criticism for the deposed Khrushchev, saying that he was "guilty of dangerous adventure" as in the Berlin and Cuban crises but that "he learned from mistakes and he was not blind to realities."

Of Khrushchev's successors, Johnson said they are younger men who may be "less rooted in their past," and they are said "to be realistic."

"We can hope that they will share with us our great objective; the prevention of nuclear war," he added.

He said the change in the Moscow high command means at least four things for Americans:

First—the men in the Kremlin "remain dedicated, dangerous Communists."

Second—"There will be turmoil in the Communist world." But the President said that the preoccupation of Kremlin chieftains with Communist problems is not all bad "because men who are busy with internal problems may not be tempted to reckless external acts."

Third—The forces working for greater independence in Communist-governed Eastern Europe "will continue to have our sympathy."

Fourth—The course now followed by the United States "must continue to prove that we on our side are ready to get on with the work of peace."

Britain To Maintain U.S.-Anglo Alliance

LONDON (UPI) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson's new Labor Party government informed the United States officially today it is anxious "to maintain the Anglo-American alliance."

New foreign Secretary Patrick Gordon Walker gave the pledge in a meeting with U. S. Ambassador David K. E. Bruce at the Foreign Office. A Foreign Office spokesman said Bruce was the first foreign envoy invited by Gordon Walker for an interview.

The British spokesman said the Laborite foreign secretary was "anxious to make his first contact with the United States, to reaffirm the United Kingdom's anxiety to maintain the Anglo-American alliance."

The spokesman said that in making its first official contact with the United States, Britain's new government also looked to America as the principal member of the NATO alliance.

New Raises For Phone Workers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Some 20,000 communication workers will be covered in a new contract with the Pacific Telephone company.

The contract is subject to ratification by union members.

New Soviet Boss Calls For Coexistence, Reds' Unity

MOSCOW (AP) — The new leader of the Soviet Union, Leonid I. Brezhnev, proclaimed today a policy of peaceful coexistence, disarmament and equality among Communist parties.

Brezhnev made his first personal statement of policy since the removal of Nikita Khrushchev in a speech to a Red Square reception for the three latest Soviet cosmonauts.

Brezhnev made no reference to his takeover last Wednesday of Khrushchev's position as first secretary of the Soviet Communist party. Khrushchev has disappeared since then.

In a 20-minute address from atop Lenin's Tomb, Brezhnev said "some people express disquiet that the Soviet Union is far ahead of the United States" in space flight. Some estimates say two years ahead, some five years, he added.

"We are pleased that the Soviet Union is ahead, but we do not consider cosmic research as some kind of a race," Brezhnev said. It is part of Soviet creative work in all fields for the benefit of man, he said.

Thousands roared their welcome to the three cosmonauts, the first to circle the earth in a multiseat spacecraft, a week ago.

Brezhnev, Alexei N. Kosygin who took over Khrushchev's job as premier, President Anastas I. Nikoyan and Mikhail Suslov, a member of the party Presidium, were out at the airport to meet the three. The cosmonauts had flown 1,250 miles from space headquarters.

They hugged the trio — Col. Vladimir Komarov, commander of the spaceship, scientist Konstantin Feoktistov and Dr. Boris Yegorov.

After a triumphant ride from the airport the new cosmonauts, the members of the party's Central Committee presidium and five of the previous six cosmonauts lined up atop Lenin's Tomb. Waves of cheers swept the vast square.

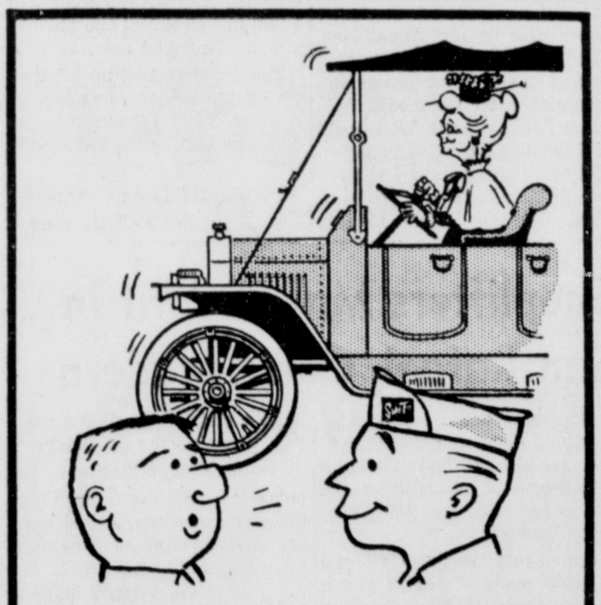

Brezhnev told the crowd standing under the Kremlin walls that a Leninist policy would be followed. He emphasized the "Leninist principles of leadership." This was a reference to collective leadership rather than one-man domination of the Soviet government.

DID SOMEBODY ASK FOR COINS?

Mrs. William Day of San Rafael read in the Independent-Journal about a shortage of coins for change at markets. Mrs. Day knew just what to do about it. She went through her husband's pockets, her own pocketbook, and various hideaways in her home and came up with $186.67 in change, which she here presents to Jerry Garcia, head clerk at the United Market at 515 Third Street, San Rafael. Post Office Proposal Wins County Approval

The Marin County Planning Commission today approved preliminary plans for site layout and floor plan of a proposed post office distribution center on Francisco Boulevard between Bellam Boulevard and Sims Street, just south of San Rafael.

The building will function primarily as a warehouse and is designed to eventually process most of the mail for Northern California, the planning staff reported.

Less than 4 per cent of the building will be devoted to walk-in patrons, the staff said. The existing post office in San Rafael will remain and will retain the main balance of the patron service.

Preliminary drawings on site and floor plans were submitted to the commission for architectural supervision by Lawrence Guay, real estate officer with the San Francisco regional office of the Post Office Department.

The plan includes parking for 55 employees, seven officials, 17 patrons and 74 mail vehicles. The proposal is for a one-story concrete building having 36,760 square feet in the first 10 years and expanding to 43,960 square feet by the end of 20 years.

Guay reported working drawings for the building are about 60 per cent complete.

The commission approved the plans subject to a committee review of elevations.

Ungrateful Woman Pulls Gun On Man

A Mill Valley man gave a middle-aged woman a ride on the Shoreline Highway in Tamalpais Valley Saturday—and regretted it.

R. J. Bettencourt told sheriff's deputies the woman, whom he had given a lift as he was coming home from work about 4:30 p.m., pulled a .22 caliber "vest pocket" pistol from her purse and pointed it at him.

Pulling to the side of the road, Bettencourt jumped from the car and the woman ran after him. At that point, his son, Richard J. Bettencourt of 503 Dineo Avenue, Tamalpais Valley, drove up and attempted to help his father.

Seeing the younger man approach, the woman tossed her pistol into a nearby grocery store's parking lot and ran away.

The father and son gave the pistol, as well as the woman's purse, which she had left in the car, to deputies.

closed for two hours, and traffic was backed up for a mile or more on both sides of the Golden Gate during much of that time.

Patrolmen said it took nearly half an hour to remove the occupants of the badly mangled cars.

Schanuel and Thatcher were dead on arrival at San Francisco hospitals. The two women were dead on arrival at Marin General Hospital.

Left orphaned by the accident were the Schanuels' children, Gregory, 6; Mark, 5, and Michael, 3. Their father was employed by Western Asbestos Co. of Brisbane.

Mrs. Fox also was mother of three children. They are Pamela, 5; Denise, 4, and Roy, 3. Both women were registered nurses and had been good friends since they trained together. Fox is associated with his father-in-law, contractor Roy Johnson of Orinda.

Mrs. Edith Vasen of Oakland, mother of Mrs. Schanuel, said the two couples set out from Oakland at 6:25 p.m., leaving the Schanuel children with her and the Fox children elsewhere.

They had intended to visit the new Mormon temple in Oakland, but apparently changed plans and decided to drive to Marin for dinner.

Funeral arrangements for Mrs. Fox are pending at Oak Park Hills Chapel in Walnut Creek, and for Mr. and Mrs. Schanuel at Grant V. Miller Co. of Oakland.

Thatcher had moved within the past few days from the Marin Street apartment, where he had lived with two brothers, Charles and Eddie Thatcher, Eddie's wife, Mildred, and their small son.

A construction worker, he reportedly had been divorced recently and had four small children who now live with their mother.

Neighbors said Thatcher was a diabetic and had not felt well recently.

His mother reportedly lives in Wisconsin.

Funeral arrangements are pending at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael.

Barry and spokesmen for both sides replied "no progress" when newsmen asked the results of the talks. However, Barry said he would attempt to bring the two sides together for another session.

He added that the employers have not submitted any new offer toward a settlement of the dispute started by liquor salesmen's demands for higher commissions.

Novato Youth Works Havoc In Police Car

An irate teen-ager did approximately $200 damage to a Novato police car after he was arrested Saturday night, Police Chief Robert Di Grazia reported.

Michael Wayne Johnson, 18, of 455 Arthur Street, was later released on $276 bail on charges of malicious mischief, disturbing the peace, and being drunk in public.

Police were patrolling at Pastel Lane and Yukon Way about 11 p.m. Saturday when they saw Johnson and other youths in an altercation in front of 1464 Pastel Lane, they reported.

Johnson was arrested and put in the back seat of the patrol car. He broke the plastic bubble separating the front and rear seats, ruined the upholstery in the back seat, tried to kick out the rear windows and bent the seats, Chief Di Grazia reported.

Influenza Shots Urged By County Health Officer

Vaccinations against influenza have been recommended for persons over 65 years old, sufferers of chronic diseases and pregnant women by Dr. Carolyn Albrecht, Marin County health officer.

"Vaccination should begin immediately so that it may be completed by mid-December," she said. "The usual course for those who have not been vaccinated since July, 1963, is one vaccination followed by another two months later. However, even a single dose can afford significant protection and persons vaccinated since July 1963, will need only one vaccination."

Persons desiring influenza shots may consult a private physician because they are not being given by the county health department, Dr. Albrecht said.

Nicasio Road Wreck Injures Woman

Jacqueline M. Kientz, 29, of 1575 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax, was treated for a cut scalp at Marin General Hospital after an auto accident on Nicasio Road about 1.2 miles north of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard about 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

Runaway Beatle Fans May Be In Sacramento Region

Four 13-year-old San Rafael girls, missing since Friday, were believed to be in the Sacramento area, but had not yet been located today by their distraught parents.

The fathers of two of the girls spent the weekend in Sacramento looking for them.

Police said Dixie Jo McEnery of 2124 Fourth Street, who only recently moved to San Rafael from Sacramento, was seen in the Sacramento bus station at 7 p.m. Friday by a former classmate.

The Sacramento girl who knew nothing of the four girls' disappearance earlier in the day, approached her friend and three companions, but they hurried away, she later told Sacramento police.

Mrs. Kenneth Moser of 107 Humboldt Street, mother of Suzanne Moser, today issued a tearful plea for her daughter to call the family.

"We want her to call her mother or her grandmother in Nevada if she needs help or anything," she said. "We want her home."

Also missing are Carroll Hubbell of 40 Knoll Road and Shirley E. Best of 179 Tamal Vista Drive.

Moser and Neil T. Best, Shirley's father, went to Sacramento yesterday in hope of finding the girls, all students at Davidson Junior High School.

Police learned the girls, all avid fans of the Beatle's quartet, had hatched a plan of some sort, and might have considered trying to get to England to see their idols.

They were not believed to have taken enough money, however, to get them anywhere near England.

A team of nurses has been with Hoover constantly since last February.

Hoover's wife died in 1944.

Hoover is one of three living former presidents. The others are Harry Truman and Dwight D. Eisenhower. The only other former president to live to reach the age of 90 was the nation's second, John Adams.

Cab Driver Has Customer Woes

Clarence Van Curen of San Rafael, taxi driver for Yellow Cab Co. in Mill Valley, picked up a customer this morning who not only would not pay for the ride but allegedly lifted the cabbie's watch.

Van Curen, of 830 B Street, brought Barbara Jean Miller, 40, a San Francisco waitress, to the Mill Valley police station at 7:25 a.m., saying she refused to pay her $5.20 fare after riding from Tiburon to Mill Valley.

Burglar Leaves His Old Clothes

A careless thief left behind a bold remembrance of himself when he took a shirt, sweater and $20 yesterday from the Allen J. Anthony home at 1233 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo.

The Anthony family returned from a trip to Santa Rosa at about 10:30 p.m. to find a shirt and sweater was missing from Anthony's closet and $20 gone from two purses. On the floor near the closet was a brown sport shirt with bright red and white stripes—not the property of Anthony.

Police theorized that the thief was in such a hurry to try on his new shirt that he forgot to pick up after himself.

PLAYED IT COOL

Officer Evens Odds Before Jailing Gang

A Sausalito police officer smelled a rat Saturday when he questioned three men in a parked car on Rodeo Avenue near Highway 101.

But he soon realized he was outnumbered, so officer John Higgins played it cool.

Higgins asked the men for identification. They had none. But they also were moving around as though to surround him.

Forcing a smile, he told them to "have a nice trip," got in his car to drive away—and radioed for help from Marin County sheriff's deputies.

With a sheriff's patrol car moving in to balance the odds, Higgins stopped the car again near the Golden Gate Bridge, and soon learned the men were wanted in Mendocino County for theft of shotguns, rifles and ammunition from a general store there.

The car in which they were riding, itself stolen, contained guns and ammunition which matched the description of the stolen goods.

Booked at county jail for pick-up by Mendocino authorities were Timothy Joseph Lewis, 21, John Gordon Reed, 20, and Walt Jenry Walker, 20. Police said all three had served time, for robbery or burglary, in Oregon.

Higgins decision to "play it cool" apparently was the right one, for Lewis reportedly told him the trio had planned to "do you in and then we were going to get out of there."

Transit District To Be Described

James W. Meyer of Belvedere, chief of the traffic and transportation division of De Leuw Cather and Co. in San Francisco, will talk on the cost and services of the proposed Marin County transit district at 8 p.m. Wednesday at Del Mar School on the Tiburon peninsula.

The public meeting is sponsored by the transportation committee of the Tiburon Peninsula Coordinating Council. Voters on Nov. 3 will vote on the proposed transit district as County Measure B.

On display outside the school will be a modern commuter bus from the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District.

The firm by which Meyer is employed is a consulting engineering firm specializing in transportation.

Fairfax Youngster Hurt In San Rafael

Thomas Joseph Marshall, 5, of 7 Belmont Avenue, Fairfax, was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for a scraped left leg after he was hit by a car at Fourth and G streets in San Rafael at 11:35 a.m. yesterday.

San Rafael police said the car was driven by Carlene Sue Owens, about 20, of 116 Ward Street, Larkspur. She told police a parked car blocked her view as the youngster ran into the crosswalk.

Beer, Pump Stolen

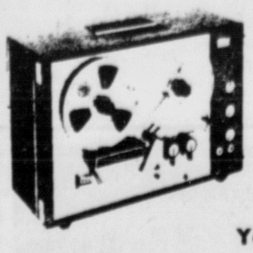

A keg of beer and pump, worth $28, were reported stolen early yesterday from the home of H. Alfred Henken, 5116 Paradise Drive, Corte Madera. Henken said the beer was locked in the bathroom and that two parties were going on in the house. The beer belonged to people participating in one of the parties. A window was removed from the bathroom to gain entry, police said.

Why Red Chinese A-Bomb? It May Have Dual Purpose

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP)—Industrially weak and 20 years late, Red China can not dream of overtaking the United States as a nuclear power. Why, then, did it explode an atom bomb?

There are two answers: one military, the other political.

Lacking long-range missiles or other delivery capabilities, the apparent aim of the fledgling Chinese nuclear power is to develop tactical atomic weapons to beef up already powerful conventionally-armed ground forces.

Once in possession of such tactical weapons, the Chinese can be expected to let the secret out in one way or another. Their purpose: to deter United States forces in the Pacific from moving troops into South Vietnam or Laos, or any other regional conflicts in which Peking is directly or indirectly involved.

Failing this, it would flourish nuclear power, and the threat of its use, as a means of discouraging the U.S. from escalating local wars into nuclear conflicts.

Secret Chinese army bulletins released by the United States reveal that three years ago the Chinese high command looked forward to the use of tactical nuclear weapons but made no reference to strategic weapons, whose usefulness would depend on missiles or aircraft.

A study of the secret Chinese papers suggests that Peking is fully aware of the dangers involved in atomic weapons and, despite its recent public stance of recklessness and belligerence, is not likely to embark on ill-considered nuclear adventures.

"We should not only prepare ourselves against the use of such weapons by our enemy in a sudden attack," wrote Marshal Yeh Chien-ying, "but also safeguard ourselves from disaster when we ourselves employ them."

The 1961 papers recognized that American nuclear attacks would decimate Chinese cities, while expected bacteriological warfare would reduce the population to starvation.

Politically, the Chinese presumably may hope with the bomb to intimidate their immediate neighbors, including India.

Though President Lyndon B. Johnson wasted no time assuring Asian nations that the United States would come to their assistance if they were menaced by China, India and other nations similarly placed may reason that it would be more prudent to reach an agreement with Peking now than to rely on an American retaliation which might come too late.

30-DAY FORECAST

Above normal precipitation and below-normal temperatures are forecast for the Bay Area according to these maps which are based on information supplied by the U.S. Weather Bureau.

It's The Good Life For Californians

LATHROP (AP) — Even though faced with tremendous growth-spawned problems, Californians are living the good life as never before, Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today in dedicating an industrial plant.

He spoke at the new Air Products and Chemicals plant near Stockton.

Brown cited, in prepared remarks, some of the state's problems:

"Every year, we must build the equivalent of 2,000 miles of highway lane to accommodate about a half million additional cars.

"Every week from now until 1975, we must build three elementary schools to house 750 students. At the same time we must build three high schools every month.

"Just as urgent is our need to create some 200,000 new jobs every year."

The Democratic governor said that a national business magazine recently asked companies everywhere which state they favored as sites for new plants.

"California came away the winner hands down, far ahead of any other state, with 26 per cent of the vote."

Brown added a political note—he is cutting state costs and has "assigned a task force to go over every existing state program to see which have become obsolescent or lost their former priority."

"A number of such items have been found," he added. "I intend to make strong recommendations to the legislature that such programs be dropped even when their elimination may be politically painful."

The governor warned employes "we recognize that there will be changes in manufacturing employment as redirections are effected in this nation's program of national defense. We intend to be ready for these changes."

Reserve Warden Positions Open

Applications for reserve fish and game warden assignments in the Bay Area are being taken by the state Department of Fish and Game.

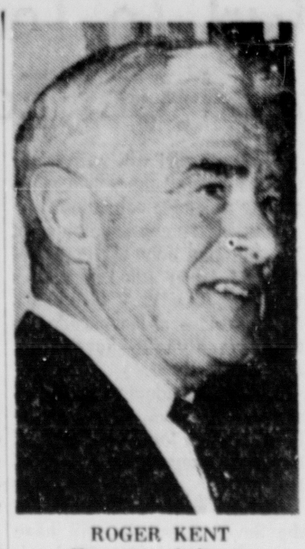

The unpaid posts are given to persons 21-40 in good health, who pass screening tests, attend 10 weekly three-hour classes and pass a final written exam.

Further information is available from the department at its office in San Francisco's Ferry Building.

Stolen Car Finally Discovered In Lake

A car stolen from a San Rafael woman in January was found in Alpine Lake Saturday, according to the Marin County sheriff's office.

The 1963 Ford, found by an employee of the Marin Municipal Water District, was reported stolen Jan. 12 by Harriet Haronik of 12 Woodland Avenue, deputies said.

ROGER KENT
Honorary chairman

Kent Named Dystrophy Drive Chief

Roger Kent of Kent Woodlands, Democratic State Central Committee chairman, has been named honorary chairman of the 1964 Thanksgiving Day march for muscular dystrophy.

"The fact that there are 10 more cases of muscular dystrophy in Marin County this year than in 1963 is very concerning," he declared.

The cause of the disease has not been discovered. The University of California Medical School in San Francisco is one of the many institutions doing research on the disease under Muscular Dystrophy Assn. grants in 28 states and 11 foreign countries.

Tam May Terminate Policy Of Four Years

Tamalpais High School District's policy of requiring students to attend four years before graduating may have to be dropped.

This statement came from assistant supt. Robert D. Torrey, during a discussion by the curriculum council on revision of the summer school program.

Torrey said the four-year policy might have to be dropped because so many students are taking courses in summer which could give them credit toward early graduation.

Almost half the district student body took summer courses this year, and the district administrative council has already voted to extend the summer session from six weeks to seven and one-half weeks next year.

The lengthening of the session will allow the school to give two full-credit courses instead of one full course and one "enrichment-type" course with little academic credit.

Still undecided, however, is whether to offer regular basic credit courses during the summer, which would allow students to move through the program in less than four years.

Summer School principal James A. Fitsgerald proposed at Thursday's meeting of the curriculum body that some top students could take special four-hour classes in summer equal to two semesters of work in one subject. Fitzgerald also proposed that four-hour classes could be offered in project courses, such as shop.

Torrey noted that 10 years ago the summer program was mainly for poor students doing make-up work, but now at least as many of the summer students are using the session to accelerate their program.

Wrongful Death Suit Is Filed

A $26,000 wrongful death suit has been field in Marin Superior Court against Marine Sgt. Marius Macklin, 25, driver of a car involved in a wreck which killed a 15-year-old Kentfield youth.

R. A. and Elizabeth H. Yeager, 119 Broadway, Kentfield, parents of the victim, Hobart Werner Yeager, allege that Macklin was intoxicated while driving the car which crashed Aug. 10 into a tree on Tiburon Boulevard.

Co-defendants in the suit are Avis Rent-A-Car System, Inc., and Marine Cpl. James D. Dunham, 20, a passenger in the car. The Yeagers charge that in addition to Sergeant Macklin's "wilful misconduct," the rental car system rented him a vehicle in "defective condition."

Already filed against the same defendants is a $35,000 suit on behalf of a third passenger, Bruce R. Stock, 15. Young Stock, son of Alden L. Stock of 140 Terrace Avenue, Kentfield, also alleges Sergeant Macklin was intoxicated. The youth suffered a forehead cut and bruises.

Sergeant Macklin of Treasure Island gave a ride to Stock and Yeager shortly before the vehicle crashed on Tiburon Boulevard just west of Avenida Mira Flores. He was originally charged with felony manslaughter in the accident, but the charge was reduced to misdemeanor manslaughter and he entered a plea of no contest.

Judgment is scheduled for 3 p.m. Thursday.

First victim was 9-year-old William L. Larks of 222 Evergreen Drive, Kentfield, who was treated at Marin General Hospital for a bruised and scratched leg after his bicycle struck a car driven by Alden Wintringham of 965 Magnolia Avenue, Larkspur, in front of Wintringham's home at 10:45 a.m.

Kent Avenue 'Hazards' Deplored

Fifty-four Kentfield residents today petitioned the county to correct what they called a "hazardous pedestrian condition" on Kent Avenue.

The petition was directed to County Supervisor William D. Fusselman but was delivered to Public Works Director Donald R. Frost.

It claimed that: (1) The 25-mile speed limit on Kent Avenue is rarely enforced; (2) cars park on pedestrian pathways on both sides of the street; (3) the lower end of Kent Avenue "is a continual sorce (sic) of congestion" because of two-way traffic plus traffic from the College of Marin parking lot and one-way Stadium Way.

The petitioners asked that the county: (1) declare Kent Avenue a school zone from Hillside to Woodland avenues and enforce the speed limit; (2) tag cars parked in the pedestrian pathways; (3) provide at least a two-foot pedestrian clearance "or better yet, install paved sidewalks"; (4) permit parking on one side of the street only during school hours: (5) paint a crosswalk and install a traffic signal "at a point convenient to the Kent School and shopping center, either on Kent Avenue at Stadium Way or on Kent Avenue at Kent Place."

Mrs. Peter H. O'Toole of 333 Kent Avenue delivered the petition.

Campaigns Mark Time, Barry May Telecast On Civil Rights

COMBINED UPI & AP

Democratic and Republican candidates paused today to catch up on business and hold strategy sessions before hitting the trail for the final two weeks of the campaign.

President Lyndon B. Johnson, after spending the weekend occupied by recent events in the Communist world, scheduled a White House briefing today on the developments for Congressional leaders of both parties.

Democratic vice presidential nominee Hubert H. Humphrey cancelled two speeches in Florida to attend the session. He was scheduled to fly to Ardmore, Okla., tonight to resume campaigning.

Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, the GOP presidential nominee, continued to rest at his Washington apartment and meet with his aides. Goldwater will make a one-day swing through Maryland tomorrow and into Pennsylvania on Wednesday.

The only candidate not in Washington was Republican vice presidential nominee William E. Miller, in San Diego.

EQUAL TIME

Johnson's meeting with legislative leaders followed his address on nationwide television last night on the changes in the Soviet government and the explosion of a Red Chinese nuclear device. Republicans demanded Goldwater be given equal time to reply.

GOP National Chairman Dean Burch called oin the networks to provide Goldwater with air time tonight. Burch called Johnson's appearance "utterly politically motivated."

The Federal Communication Commission said it would hold a hearing on the demand.

Humphrey last night said the new Russian leaders would not keep Cuban Premier Fidel Castro in power "at the cost of 1 million dollars a day."

He predicted earlier in the day the new Kremlin regime could be expected to make some statement or take an action that could be considered provocative by the West. "These will be irritating remarks . . . nothing major that could lead us into a crisis."

GOLDWATER

Sen. Goldwater took up the civil rights question today — and said he may remind the nation in a televised campaign speech of his view that "freedom of association cuts two ways."

Goldwater said he might later use the civil rights speech "nationally." He did not specifically mention television, but indicated that was what he had in mind by adding it might be used when there is sufficient money to finance such an appearance.

Goldwater ended the seventh week of the campaign Saturday in Ohio where he forecast an election victory and said: "I have never felt such a surge in grassroots movement in my life."

Goldwater ended the last week by asserting across Ohio that voters should not "worry about Goldwater's finger being near a button." He said his worry "is the leader in Russia, whoever he may be."

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson planned to stand in for her husband today in Fort Worth.

LADY BIRD

The First Lady and Texas Gov. John B. Connally were to appear in Fort Worth at a $100-a-plate fund-raising lunch for the Democratic party.

Yesterday, Connally and Mrs. Johnson were hosts at a barbecue at the LBJ Ranch. Connally told more than 1,200 county campaign workers there was "no question, by any criteria, who should be elected president of the United States."

MILLER

Republican vice presidential nominee William E. Miller returns to the campaign trail tonight in Northern California, following a two-day rest in the sun at San Diego to clear up a cold.

Miller was scheduled for appearances at San Mateo tonight and San Jose and Oakland tomorrow.

Miller was under attack today by Gov. Edmund G. Brown for making the Walter Jenkins case a campaign issue. At a news conference in San Diego yesterday, the Democratic Governor said that Jenkins was a sick man but such a problem can happen in the best of families.

Brown, who met with party leaders at a fund-raising dinner at San Diego, said he told President Johnson he would like him to campaign the entire day in California on Oct. 28.

HUMPHREY

Democratic vice presidential candidate Humphrey said last night that the Kremlin shakeup will have no healing effect on the "irreparable" Sino-Soviet split.

He called the Jenkins case "a personal and sad tragedy for a man and his family." He said it was devoid of security implications, however.

Humphrey said he hoped world opinion would force the Chinese to sign the nuclear test ban treaty, and that such action might stimulate France to do the same. But he said China can by no means be called a nuclear power yet.

"And I think it should be made clear to all Americans that a (nuclear) treaty with Red China doesn't mean we would have to maintain diplomatic relations with her, or admit her to the United Nations," Humphrey declared.

NIXON

Richard M. Nixon, former vice president and Republican presidential nominee in 1960, announced a 16-speech Republican campaign itinerary covering 13 states this week, beginning today in Syracuse, N.Y., Hartford and Stanford, Conn.

To Describe ABAG

John F. McInnis, San Rafael mayor and former president of the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, will describe what ABAG is and what it tries to do at the Marin County Real Estate Board breakfast at 8 a.m. tomorrow at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael.

Pierre, Foe Argue Defense Work Losses

LOS ANGELES (AP) — California's two senatorial aspirants met Saturday in their second face-to-face encounter and reheated their televised debate of two weeks ago.

Sen. Pierre Salinger (D-Calif.) and Republican George Murphy again took opposite views of the state's share of national defense and space contracts.

"I challenge you to name, here and now, one contract which California lost which it should have had on merit," Salinger said.

Murphy accused Salinger of being "loose with facts" and replied:

"Why don't you go visit the General Dynamics and Hughes plants and tell them they're getting their fair share of government works?"

In answer to other questions the candidates took these positions:

Legislative reapportionment: Murphy said he favors a two-year moratorium on compliance with the Supreme Court's ruling that both houses of state legislature be apportioned according to population. Salinger said he favors a constitutional amendment allowing voters in each state to decide the matter.

Proposition 14: Salinger said he was against the initiative that would nullify anti-discrimination portions of state housing laws. Murphy declined to take a position.

Blaze Routs 10 In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A two-alarm fire gutted a two-story flat yesterday and caused about $25,000 damages.

Firemen said the blaze routed ten persons but caused no injuries.

They said the fire started among bedding stored too close to a water heater.

Sin Punishment Document Reaffirmed By Council

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — The Ecumenical Council today approved a document which was amended to re-affirm the reality of hell as the place for the eternal punishment of sin.

But liberal council Fathers rejected a statement of priests as being too negative for further discussion until revised. The statement included propositions warning priests against vanity in dress and urged them to holiness in daily life, among other things. It was voted down by 1,199 to 930.

The council closed off debate on propositions about Oriental Catholic churches, thus paving the way for a revolutionary new type of debate tomorrow on the church in the modern world.

The reference to hell was written into the seventh chapter of the tract "De Ecclesia" — on the church — which describes the prospects of the future of the church in the world to come. Some council speakers had requested in debate that the chapter, which describes heaven and the saints, also re-affirm the reality of hell.

Memo from Bill Fusselman

There was a shocking exhibition, by my opponent, at the candidates meeting held by the League of Women Voters at the Civic Center on the evening of the 7th. Instead of conforming to the program, which was carefully worked out and presented to each of us, he launched into a tirade and personal attack on me. It was brutal, coarse and uncalled for.

He continually claims that District 2 needs a "Successful Businessman" to represent it on the Board of Supervisors. This certainly is a scornful allusion to me. Well, is he a "paper tiger" or not?

So let's take a look at some records: I have in my possession three certified copies of official records from the County Recorder's Office—one is from Book 1841-Page 153—the second is from Book 1859-Page 162 and the third is from Book 1860-Page 435. The first is a deed of trust for $178,210.00 made July 20, 1964 to The California Livestock Production Credit Association of Sacramento, to certain property on Red Hill Avenue in San Anselmo, to secure a promissory note dated March 6, 1964 and due March 6, 1965—the second is for a deed of trust to the Crocker-Citizens National Bank for $35,000 to a certain piece of property on Alta Vista Avenue in San Anselmo and dated September 3, 1964. The third was an assignment of a deed of trust to the Crocker-Citizens National Bank. These were all signed by my opponent.

Next we find, in his latest mailing to the voters, that he is asking them to contribute at least a dollar to his campaign.

There is something as phony as a three dollar bill in these self asserted claims of being a successful business man. What IS the measure of success?

He continues to refuse to answer the question as to just WHAT business he has been in for the past 15 years. He just waves some recent and sporadic activities—not much depth.

A fair question he should answer is: WERE his customers happy about their dealings with him? Or did they refuse to come back for more of the same, and therefore now he is forced to ask the voters if they can spare ten little dimes for his campaign fund?

Certainly this is a new gimmick for a man claiming great business success, to solicit through the mail for contributions.

Sincerely,
Bill Fusselman

Residents of many lands mingled yesterday at a picnic for foreign students at Marin County schools, held at the San Rafael Elks Club under sponsorship of the Marin chapter of the Red Cross and Rotary Clubs of the county. Seventy foreign students attended, along with nearly 150 Marinites. Orhan Terzi of Turkey, a College of Marin student, takes peak at contents of picnic basket with Dr. Stephen E. Sen. Kennedy Describes Plane Crash

BOSTON (AP)—Sen. Edward M. Kennedy today described the plane crash in which his back was broken four months ago today as "just like a toboggan ride along the tops of trees."

Kennedy, Democratic junior senator from Massachusetts and younger brother of the late President John F. Kennedy, held his first news conference since the June 19 accident in western Massachusetts.

He suffered a broken back in the crash and has been hospitalized since.

The pilot of the plane and a Kennedy aide were killed.

Kennedy and Sen. Birch Bayh (D-Ind.) and Mrs. Bayh had left Washington to fly to Springfield, Mass., to attend the Massachusetts Democratic Convention.

Kennedy said he watched the altimeter reading descend from 1,000 down to 600 feet.

"All we could see was fog," he said. "Just as we reached 600 we broke out of the fog and I could see trees."

He said the Bayhs got out of the plane. He crawled to the rear of the plane and Bayh pulled him through a window.

Kennedy was interviewed while strapped in the orthopedic frame to which he has been confined since the accident.

"I do feel very well and do expect to be home for Christmas," he said. He also said he expects to be able to take his seat when the Senate convenes in January.

Boat Tosses, Injures Rider In Sausalito

Konstantin Titoff, 24, of San Francisco was reported in "fair condition" today at Marin General hospital with cuts on his head and right arm after he was reportedly thrown out of his boat yesterday in Sausalito and then cut by the propellor of the runaway craft.

His companion, Ed Risch, also of San Francisco, was uninjured.

Merlin A. Petersen of 404 Napa Street, Sausalito, who was at the scene of the accident, said Risch reported the two men were cruising in waters between the Glad Hand and Purity Store near Bridgeway shortly before 11 a.m. They made a "tight turn" and came back across their wake. Titoff was thrown out of the boat.

Apparently, Petersen said, Risch jumped in to help Titoff.

Titoff, according to Risch, was cut by the propellor when the boat came around in a circle. He was cut above the left eyebrow and on the right arm.

People in a sailboat threw the men a pair of life cushions. Petersen related, then towed them to the Trident nearby.

The boat, spectator Ralph K. Pedersen said, went around and around in sharp circles for 15 to 20 minutes until its gasoline ran out. The Coast Guard sent two boats to assist but the runaway boat was taken in tow by a small boat crew prior to their arrival.

McInnis Flays Incumbent's Fiscal Charge

"Once again, Mr. Leydecker has not got his facts straight," Mayor John F. McInnis declared yesterday over radio station KTIM.

The San Rafael mayor was replying to Leydecker's "fiscal irresponsibility" charge.

McInnis pointed out that when he went on the San Rafael City Council over 11 years ago, the city tax rate was $1.28 and the city had a bonded indebtedness up to its legal limit.

"In 11½ years we have ironed out this indebtedness and reduced the tax rate to 96 cents," said McInnis. "On June 30 this year, the formal audit for San Rafael indicated a balance of $1,911,793.36. This is what Mr. Leydecker calls fiscal irresponsibility . . . San Rafael is in better fiscal condition than any city in California."

McInnis denied Leydecker's charge of lack of cooperation with San Rafael merchants.

"In one area, traffic, we have worked with the merchants and the chamber of commerce in according the traffic situation constant attention," he declared. "We went to Sacramento with a proposal for the solution of the traffic problem and have subsequently been allocated two million dollars."

McInnis explained the two million dollar allocation represents the state's contribution for a new entry-exit and approach roads to San Rafael. The project includes the closing of Francisco Boulevard, a bridge extending Grand Avenue over the canal to connect with Francisco, a new street paralleling Tamalpais Avenue, and other improvements.

Nation's Personal Income Near Half-Trillion Mark

WASHINGTON (AP) — Personal income increased 2.2 billion dollars in September to a record annual rate of 497.1 billion dollars, the Commerce Department announced today.

The advance was approximately equal to the average monthly rise for the first eight months of the year. The annual rate was 28 billion dollars higher than a year ago.

The department's office of business economics also reported that consumers spent a slightly higher percentage of their net income in recent months.

Some 1.8 billion dollars of the September increase in personal income consisted of payroll increases. There was an increase in total employment as well as a gain in average hourly earnings.

Personal income consists of wages and salaries, rents, interest, dividends, small business profits and other payments to individuals.

There were very few changes from August to September in the nonpayroll components of personal income. Agricultural income advanced after dropping the previous month. Dividends declined slightly and interest payments continued a long-term upward trend.

For the July-September period, personal income was at an annual rate of 494.5 billion, a gain of 6.5 billion dollars over the second quarter. The gain in disposable personal income — the amount left after taxes — was 5.4 billion dollars.

Cascade Rec Area Is Due City Council

Opening of Cascade Reservoir at the end of Cascade Drive as a "passive recreational" area for Mill Valleyans will be considered by the city council at its 8 p.m. meeting today.

The parks and recreation commission has recommended that the area, now fenced off from the public, be opened to permit people to walk on trails and enjoy the beauty of the area. Swimming, as now, would not be permitted.

Commissioners recommend a fence along the north side to the bank of the pond be removed, that steps be established to the pond, a temporary fence be erected across the face of the dam for safety and that a trail be established to provide access along the north side of the reservoir to the bank of the pond, the trail to eventually tie in to other trails up the mountain.

Councilmen will consider a request for removal of a stop sign at the playground on Vista Linda Avenue and hear first reading of an ordinance amending parking requirements of the zoning ordinance.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Ex-Labor Secretary James Mitchell Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — James P. Mitchell, 63, secretary of labor in the Eisenhower administration, died today in his suite at the Astor Hotel.

He apparently suffered a heart attack. A physician was with him when he died, the hotel said.

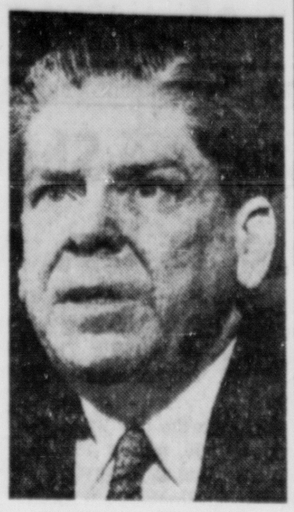

Mitchell, big and bluff, but with an air of relaxed charm, had little formal education but a vast background in personnel management when President Dwight D. Eisenhower named him to the cabinet in 1953.

He had been an expert in labor relations for New York department stores, civilian manpower chief for the armed forces during World War II and assistant secretary of the Army.

Organized labor was lukewarm to his appointment at first. Later AFL-CIO president George Meany was to refer to him as the greatest secretary of labor this country had ever had.

After leaving the cabinet with the change of administration, Mitchell returned to his native New Jersey and ran unsuccessfully for governor in 1961. His campaign was halted temporarily by a broken leg. But the 6-foot, 200-pound candidate soon resumed stumping with the aid of crutches and later a cane.

The next year he became vice president of the Crown Zellerbach Corp., paper making firm, with offices in San Francisco and residence in Hillsborough, Calif.

JAMES P. MITCHELL
Has heart attack

He was visiting New York for a business conference when he was stricken. He had registered at the hotel Saturday night.

Born in Elizabeth, N.J., Nov. 12, 1900, Mitchell was a son of Peter J. and Ann C. Driscol Mitchell. He finished high school a year ahead of time, but there his formal education stopped.

Mitchell is survived by his widow, the former Isabel Nulton; his mother, Mrs. Peter Mitchell of Elizabeth, N.J.; a daughter, Mrs. Frank Natchez; three sisters, Miss Anne Mitchell; Mrs. Richard Schleck of Essex Fells, N.J., and Mrs. Michael Bockwith of Washington, D.C., and three grandchildren.

World's Fair In Hibernation

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York World's Fair has gone into hibernation for six months.

The billion-dollar exposition closed last midnight after a six-month run.

Fair officials said it was a financial success.

Fair records showed a total of 33,373,446 persons visited the fair during the first season—considerably short of the estimated 40 million forecast last March.

A total of 200,076 visitors passed through the turnstiles yesterday.

Driver Injured As Car Hits Post

Michael H. Ryan, 33, of 142 Dominga Avenue, Fairfax, was injured near his home yesterday when his car swerved out of control and rammed into a brick gate post.

Ryan was treated for severe face cuts and a cut right arm at Marin General Hospital. He told police that a dog darted into the path of his car, causing him to brake and swerve, throwing his car out of control.

The car jumped the curb and knocked over a five-foot high gate post at 133 Dominga Avenue.

Two Convicts Flee From State Camp

Two convicts walked away from Parlin Fork conservation camp in Mendocino County last evening, San Quentin Prison authorities reported today.

The two men, Terry Schnittspan,, 31, serving time for grand theft and Thomas Bryant, 22, serving time for second degree burglary, were missing at the 8 p.m. head count. Fort Bragg is the nearest large town.

Motorcycles Bump, 2 Hurt

Two men were injured when their motorcycles collided on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard a half mile west of Woodacre at 12:25 p.m. Saturday.

The California Highway Patrol said Patrick J. Haley's black 1964 Honda crashed into Michael T. Hall's red 1964 Honda when Haley pulled out to pass a car.

Haley, 24, was treated at Marin General Hospital for a broken right knee. Hall, 16, was in satisfactory condition there today with a broken right arm, facial cuts and bruises.

High Court Refuses To Rule On White Parents Petition

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court refused today to rule on a complaint by a group of white parents in Brooklyn, N.Y., who said their children were assigned to a new junior high school outside their home area on the basis of race.

The refusal was in a brief order which made no comment.

In a petition to the high tribunal, the parents stated:

"Petitioners do not object to having their children attend school with non-whites. They do object to the assignment of their children to a school in a slum to satisfy a 'political compromise' brought about by pressure on the Board of Education, solely because their children are white."

In other actions of national interest in a brief session, the high court:

1. Upheld a South Carolina law providing that an election ballot shall not be counted unless the voter marks the names of as many candidates as there are offices to be filled.

Two Republicans running for the state legislature in Richland County with 10 seats at stake challenged validity of the law, saying Republicans who voted for them would also have to vote for eight Democrats in order to have their ballots counted. A special three-judge court in South Carolina upheld validity of the law and the Supreme Court affirmed the lower court decision.

2. Ordered arguments on a Nebraska request for permission to file suit against Iowa in a dispute over their boundary along the Missouri River.

Fire Ordinance Is Sought For Wooded Areas

Marin County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom will recommend to the that an ordinance be drawn up to provide adequate fire protection facilities for homes in heavily wooded areas.

In a letter to the board, the chief said homes are being constructed in heavily wooded sections with no provisions being made for adequate water main extension for fire protection.

He also said an ordinance controlling the situation would increase fire protection in unincorporated areas and help to reduce the hazard to adjacent cities.

The board also will receive a recommendation from County Administrator Alan Bruce on the reallocation of office space at the Civic Center at an estimated cost of $28,250.

FBI Invading Ranks Of Organized Crime

WASHINGTON (UPI) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said today federal informers have set up a "highly effective" pipeline into the ranks of organized crime.

Hoover made the statement in the FBI's annual report for the 1964 fiscal year. The report cited new records in the FBI's operations during the year, including a rise of 3,340 in the number of civil rights cases handled.

The FBI director said "The reactions of organized crime prove the effectiveness" of his agency's fight in this area.

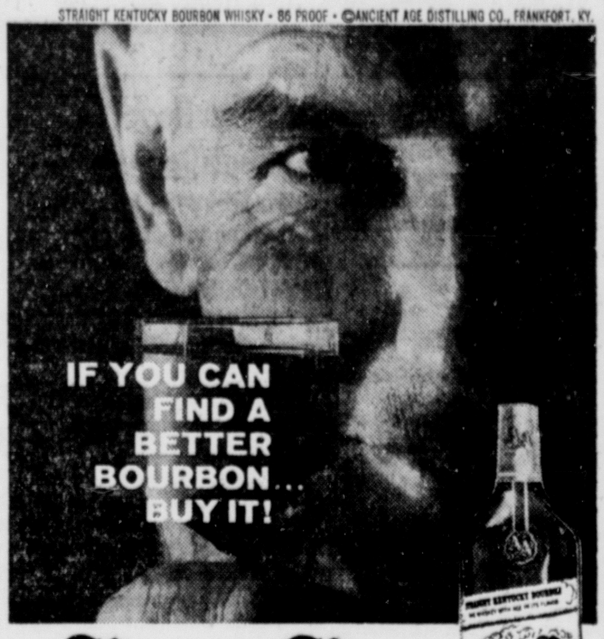

"Where arrogance and contempt for authority were once prevalent, fear and uncertainty exist today among professional gangsters," he said. "Heavy blows have been struck by the FBI at the power structure of the gangland overlords, particularly in the area of interstate gambling, a bulwark of this nationwide criminal combine."

During the fiscal year, Hoover said, 56 members of the organized mobs were convicted under interstate gambling and racketeering laws as a result of FBI investigations.

An Open Letter From:

ORLANDO CONTI

TO CITIZENS OF THE 1ST DISTRICT:

I, Orlando Conti, am endorsing Byron Leydecker for Supervisor of the First District of Marin County. During the Spring Primary Election I had the opportunity of campaigning with Mr. Leydecker and his opponent. To you who voted for me I can only say that Byron Leydecker is the man for whom I ask you to vote this November 3rd.

Anyone who has watched him as closely as I have knows that Byron Leydecker is qualified for the job. He has been handling the job like a veteran. He is sincere and honest, and he isn't full of fancy double-talk like his opponent.

To those who voted for me last Spring and to everyone who has the good of Marin in his heart, I urge that you vote for Byron Leydecker. These are my reasons:

1. He has the quality of leadership we need in Marin.
2. He stands for good land planning that looks to Marin's future.
3. He stands for a better use of the tax dollar and seeks ways to lower the property taxes we pay.
4. He stands for maintaining the beauty of Marin's hills and shoreline.
5. He stands for a road system that will be beautiful yet not be obsolete in ten years.
6. He is a man whose home, business and future are in Marin and does not want the office only as a stepping stone as do some people.

I know both candidates for this job. Byron Leydecker's opponent has not progressed with the growth of the fair city he has claimed to lead over the past years. When I have examined the facts and qualifications concerning the two candidates for Supervisor my obvious decision is to offer my full-hearted endorsement for Byron Leydecker. I ask for yours in his behalf. Marin needs a man like Leydecker just as he needs you and me.

Sincerely,

Orlando Conti

Berlitz School Of Languages Looking For Marin Location

It is reported that Berlitz School of Languages is looking for a place to open in Marin County, somewhere near San Rafael, and hopes to find one within the next 60 or 90 days.

Enough room is required for an administrative office and several classrooms, the latter quiet enough for concentration.

Berlitz has schools throughout the United States and in a number of foreign countries. Its facility for compressing a conversational knowledge of various foreign tongues into about a six-week course has been used for years by government and civilian employees transferred abroad.

SAVINGS AND LOAN depositors worried by a recent Government Accounting Office report to Congress that the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corp. might get into trouble bailing out some savings and loan associations and thus go beyond its resources, may find some comfort in the words of Norman Strunk, executive vice president of the U. S. Savings and Loan League:

"The Government Accounting Office should have emphasized the difference between assets taken on the books of the FSLIC and the anticipated losses on these assets, and the capacity of the FSLIC to acquire these assets and absorb losses.

"For example . . . the corporation envisions a net loss of about eight million dollars or 13 per cent of the 61 million dollars in assets taken on the books of the FSLIC . . . The corporation has assets well in excess of 1.2 billion dollars and an annual premium income in excess of 200 million dollars."

Strunk noted that even if the FSLIC acquired another 200 million dollars in assets from problem associations it would represent only a small part of the corporation's reserves. Eventual losses, he said, would be only a fraction of the reserve fund set up.

HERBERT E. RUPRECHT, a new arrival in Marin with his family from Allentown, Pa., has joined Albert F. Schmitz at Moore's Stationery, San Rafael, where he will be in charge of sales. The Ruprechts are now living in Terra Linda.

Ruprecht has been director of advertising and community relations for Modern Transfer Co. in Allentown for about 12 years. Previously he was district sales manager of United Air Lines in that city.

FORMER SALES MANAGER Henry (Hank) Greenberg for Kenney Family Homes has joined the sales staff of Gallagher-Sturiale's realty office in Terra Linda—which claims to have particiapted in over 35 per cent of all real estate sales in that are during the past year.

REAL ESTATE SALES in Marin, by the way, were high again last month, according to figures of the Multiple Listing Board. Not quite as high as August sales—but they did top seven million dollars again, and were 37 per cent above sales for September of last year.

WILLIAM C. BRADY, formerly with Davis Realty, is now doing business on his own as Brady Realty at 834 Fifth Avenue, San Rafael. He is a member of the Marin County Real Estate Board.

The world's longest marked footpath is the Appalachian Trail, 2,050 miles of mountain hiking in the eastern United States. It was completed in 1937 by volunteer crews of hikers and naturalists.

BUSINESS MIXED WITH PLEASURE

Three happy couples, (left to right) Mr. and Mrs. George Croke, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Roncarati, spent last week in Hawaii because the husbands—all account executives with York and Co., San Rafael—exceeded the firm's sales goals in a company-wide mutual fund sales program. York's San Rafael office has just been moved to 900 Fifth Avenue.

Ground Is Broken At Golden Gateway Unit

SAN FRANCISCO — Ground has been broken today on the 11.5 million-dollar phase 2-A of the Golden Gateway Center.

Consisting of a 22 story apartment building and 20 town houses, the project will contain 400 apartments ranging from efficiency to four bedroom units and will cover more than two acres.

Palace Revolt At Publisher's

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mathew J. Culligan resigned today as president of the Curtis Publishing Co. but retained his post as board chairman, in a dispute over management of the 122-million-dollar firm.

Curtis is the publisher of five magazines including the Saturday Evening Post.

The dispute had resulted last week in the suspension of Culligan's two top assistants, who had charged he was mismanaging the company.

There was no mention in today's brief statement issued by the board, of the future status of Clay Blair Jr., editor in chief and Marvin D. Kantor, chairman of the magazine division.

Blair and Kantor led a revolt of 17 top business and editorial employes seeking Culligan's removal as chief executive officer.

Today's announcement said a new president would be named "in the near future."

Market Shuts Higher; Steels Up, Motors Off

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market closed higher today with steels up and Big Three motors off. Trading was fairly active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.16 million shares, about the same as Friday.

The top steelmakers advanced fractionally amid favorable reports on the steel business, despite the strike at General Motors.

Big Three motors all were down, Chrysler a point, Ford and GM fractions.

Coppers were strong on the rise in world copper prices. Anaconda and Kennecott were up about 2 each, Cerro well over a point, Phelps Dodge a fraction.

Gains of about 2 were made by Polaroid, Norfolk & Western Railway, Joy Manufacturing, Arlan's Department Stores and Calgon.

Xerox sank about 6 points, IBM more than 2, Control Data a point.

Hamilton Watch rose more than a point and its preferred about 4.

Also up a point or better were Boeing, United Air Lines, Du Pont, Eastman Kodak, Zenith, Royal Crown Cola, Korvette, TWA, American Broadcasting-Paramount, American Metal Climax, Armour, Chicago Great Western, Disney, Excello, Inspiration Copper and Helene Curtis.

Prices rose in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were mixed. U.S. government bonds were mostly unchanged.

Population Boom Seen

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Santa Clara County's population will boom 50 per cent—to nearly 1.3 million persons—by 1975, says a Bank of America economic study.

The study predicts the county's residents will have a total personal income of 4.7 billion dollars, provided mainly by large increases in service industries, government, trade and finance in the next 10 years.

During the period, the study foresees Santa Clara County far outstripping the rest of the state in population growth rate.

Santa Clara County now has about 855,000 population.

49er Passes Boomerang As Rams Romp

By CHARLES MAHER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The San Francisco 49ers are probably the only football team that ever lost a game in which its passes yielded more than 600 yards and four touchdowns.

John Brodie, George Mira and Bill Kilmer threw 44 passes for San Francisco yesterday and 27 of them were caught. The reason Los Angeles is that seven of the Los Angeles is that seven o fthe 27 were caught by Rams, who returned them for 314 yards and two touchdowns.

That's only seven yards less than the 49ers gained on the 20 passes they completed to their own receivers.

Ram quarterback Roman Gabriel, making his first start of the season, passed for only 165 yards, but probably won the game in the second quarter when he hit rookie Bucky Pope with three touchdown throws. The first broke a 7-7 tie.

Gabriel, who missed the first four games of the season because of a knee injury, had passed to Marlin McKeever for the first Ram score in the opening period.

"It was the biggest win we've ever had since I've been with the Rams," said Coach Harland Svare, who joined the club in the middle of the 1962 season.

"It was really rookie day out there," Svare said, referring to Pope's brilliant performance and to three interceptions by Jerry Richardson and two by Aaron Martin.

Richardson set up a Ram touchdown with one of his interceptions and Martin ran 71 yards for a score on one of his.

But perhaps the biggest interception was the one executed by third-year man Bobby Smith, who picked off a pass by Mira in the fourth quarter and ran 97 yards for a touchdown. The 49ers had driven to the Los Angeles 6 and a touchdown and conversion would have cut the Ram lead to 28-21 with nearly three minutes to play.

Instead, after Smith's run, it was 35-14.

But the Rams did set a record for yards gained returning intercepted passes. In fact, they bettered the old record of 213 by more than 100 yards. It was set by the Cleveland Browns in 1960 against the Chicago Bears.

The Rams also ran up their highest score since 1960, when they beat Detroit 48-35.

The 49ers got their first touchdown on an 83-yard pass play from Brodie to Dave Parks in the opening quarter and their other on a 4 - yard pass from Mira to Dave Kopay in the fourth.

San Francisco halfback Don Lisbon suffered torn ligaments in his right knee in the second period and Coach Jack Christiansen said Lisbon may be lost for the season.

"That will make five players I've lost this season with injuries," Christiansen said.

"I suppose this will hurt your running game," a reporter said.

"We haven't had a running game this season even with Lisbon in there," Christiansen said.

The 49ers play Minnesota next Sunday at San Francisco and the Rams meet Green Bay at Milwaukee. San Francisco has a 2-4 record and Los Angeles is 3-2-1.

NEW MANAGERS NAMED FOR PIRATES, CINCY

The Cincinnati Reds and Pittsburgh Pirates appointed new field managers today while the New York Yankees announced they have offered their vacant managerial post to Johnny Keane who resigned last Friday as the field boss of the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals.

The Reds named Dick Sisler as their manager, succeeding cancer-stricken Freddie Hutchinson who resigned this morning. Sisler was acting manager during the latter part of the season.

Pittsburgh named Harry "The Hat" Walker, 45, to succeed Danny Murtaugh who resigned

49ers-Rams Game Ridiculous Exhibition Of Pro Football

Randol

Now begins the long, long winter for the football teams that have lost all hope of championship or runner-up spots. Not that the San Francisco 49ers had such a high aspirations at any time, but yesterday's 42 to 14 loss to the L.A. Rams really put the cap on the bottle.

For the entire first half of the game the 49ers were flatter than yesterday's beer. With consumate ease the Rams moved to a three touchdown lead, and from that point things degenerated into ridiculous exhibition of pro football.

During the second half, both teams looked like a bunch of kids in a pick-up game on the corner lot. There were junk plays, interceptions, fumbles, interference calls, an one-side kick—name it and you've got it.

ACTUALLY, statistics tell the story with the Rams collecting 314 yards on seven pass interceptions while the Niners were outgaining the Rams 438 yards to 291. The Rams had had only eight interceptions up to this game, but set a new NFL record with their pick-offs.

There is always an explanation when an alibi won't hold water. This time it was the injury of Don Lisbon which cost the 49ers their only real threat of speed on offense. The Rams were able to flood the defensive area while their big linemen put the rush on John Brodie and George Mira, forcing errors.

AS IT WAS, little scooter Mira almost ran the Niners right back into the game until the Rams began catching more of his passes than did his own men. As a passer, Mira still throws too hard, and his short stature makes him throw low on the short passes, but the kid is a great scrambler.

Were it not for his great potential as a quarterback in years to come, Mira could fit into Lisbon's backfield spot right now. Operating with Brodie in the same offense, Mira's threat of run or pass would give fits to some teams.

Granted that a three touchdown lead takes off some of the pressure, Mira is quick enough and sure footed enough to scamper for yards. And he is tough. But not tough enough to consistently withstand the hammering he would surely get from tons of defensive brutes.

WITH THE season not yet half over, there is no drawing board to go back to. It is now up to Coach Jack Christiansen to see that his rookies and sophomores get plenty of action the rest of the year, and still show enough to please the fans. And that is quite an order.

Unfortunately there are no "breathers" on this schedule. The Niners have a one day home stand next Sunday against the hungry Minnesota Vikings, then hit the road again meeting the title-bound Baltimore Colts and the Vikings before returning to Kezar against the Green Bay Packers.

Right now we have to admit that just two more wins this season would be beyond normal expectations.

U. S. Wins Two More Gold Medals

Cal-USC Headlines Schedule

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Two battles with Rose Bowl vertures features the West Coast slate this weekend as undefeated Oregon plays at Washington and the surprising California Bears challenge the Trojans of Southern California.

Washington and USC were predicted to fight it out for the Pacific Athletic Conference title and Rose Bowl bid yet each could go down this Saturday.

Three intersectional games are on the docket with Westerners needing to do some redeeming. Stanford plays at Notre Dame, UCLA at Illinois and Oregon State meets Syracuse at Portland.

Washington State plays at Idaho in the traditional game of that area and in a night game, San Jose State goes at University of the Pacific.

California upheld the intersectional honors last Saturday as Craig Morton scored one touchdown and passed for two others to fire the Bears to a 27-13 victory over Navy.

Hampered by an ankle injury, the Middies' Roger Staubach saw limited duty but enough to have four passes intercepted and only six completed.

USC BLANKED

Ohio State blanked Southern Cal 17-0 at Columbus while Notre Dame measured UCLA 24-0 at South Bend.

In the only conference game, Washington's 158 - pound Steve Bramwell returned a punt 34 yards to set up the only touchdown needed for the Huskies to trip Stanford 6-0.

Oregon's Bob Berry fired three touchdown passes as the Ducks racked up their fifth victory without defeat in a 21-0 triumph over Arizona. Oregon State placekicker Steve Clark booted a 22-yard field goal for the margin of a 10-7 win over Idaho.

Washington State scored 16 points in 14 minutes of the first half and edged San Jose 16-14. Brigham Young won its first game for new coach Tom Hudspeth, 21-0 over University of the Pacific.

Clarence Williams ran 65 yards for the opening Washington State touchdown and that was to prove the difference.

BYU's sophomore quarterback Virgil Carter threw one touchdown pass and scored once as the Cougars broke their losing string.

ROOKIE'S THIRD TOUCHDOWN

Bucky Pope, rookie end for the Los Angeles Rams, takes a pass from Roman Gabriel and dodges between the goal posts to score his third touchdown of the afternoon against the San Francisco 49ers yesterday in Los Angeles. The TD put the Rams ahead 28-7 at the end of the first half. On this six-pointer, Pope outran 49er Elbert Kimbrough to score. The 49ers fell to the Rams by a 42-14 score. (AP Wirephoto)

Shiftless Chaparral Wins The Monterey Grand Prix

By DEREK SCHOEN

MONTEREY (AP)—Roger Penske is one auto driver who doesn't mind a bit being called shiftless.

The 27-year-oid sports car pilot from Gladwyne, Pa., today owns his second Monterey Grand Prix title —thanks to a car with an automatic gear shift.

Penske drove the Chevrolet-powered Chapparal, owned by Jim Hall of Midland, Tex., to victory in both heats of yesterday's 202-mile grind over the 1.9-mile Laguna Seca course.

En route he shattered a covey of course records, took $8,500 in prize money and probably made believers out of many sports car buffs who previously believed automatic gear shifts belonged only on family cars.

Penske gave a hint Friday of what was to come when he set a one-lap record of 94 miles an hour in qualifying.

During the grand prix itself, he averaged 94.5 miles an hour in the first heat and 93.2 in the second, twice shattering the old record of 91 miles an hour set in 1962 by Lloyd Ruby.

He also turned in the fastest one-lap speed ever recorded—a blazing 99.4 miles an hour.

Penske, who operates a car dealership in Philadelphia when he isn't racing, had nothing but praise for his car after the grueling race.

"All I did was put one foot on the brake, one foot on the accelerator, and both hands on the wheel—the car did the rest," he told interviewers at the finish line.

On the straightaways, he said, he merely pushed the accelerator to the floor, "and we seemed to move right away from the others."

He said the car down-shifted automatically to perfection on all of Laguna Seca's nine sharp curves.

"I just feathered the brake and the shift did the rest."

Penske, who won the same race in 1962 in a Zerex-Duralite Climax joined Stirling Moss, the retired 1960 and 1961 winner as the only two-time victors in the event's five-year history.

More than 45,000 fans crowded around the sun - baked course and watched Penske dominate the day's racing.

His principal competition in both heats came from Dan Gurney of Costa Mesa, Calif., who twice finished second.

Gurney, driving a Lotus-Ford, held the lead for 13 laps in the first race before Penske caught him on a curve and left him behind.

Penske was the whole story in the second heat, taking the lead at the starting line and holding it throughout. Gurney ran into minor engine trouble on the 35th lap but held on to second place over Bob Bondurant of Los Angeles, at the wheel of a Cooper.

Parnelli Jones of Torrance, Calif., winner of last weekend's Riverside Grand Prix, escaped injury when his Cooper - Ford burst into flames after crashing on the 37th lap of the first heat.

Only serious mishap of the day came in the consolation race for grand prix drivers, when John (Bat) Masterson of Ventura, Calif., suffered back injuries after crashing into a bridge support. He was reported in satisfactory condition at Monterey General Hospital.

McMannus Is Marin Net Standout

Jim McMannus of Berkeley won the singles title and a share of the doubles crown after victories in the finals of the Marin County Invitational tennis tournament yesterday at the Belvedere Tennis Club.

McMannus, No. 1 seed in the sinbles, defeated Henry Jungle of New Orleans, La., 2-6, 6-1, 7-5 before about 200 tennis fans under warm skies in Belvedere. Jungle was the third seeded player.

In the doubles finals, McMannus teamed with Don Jacobus, also of Berkeley, to beat Jack Darrah of Berkeley and Herb FitzGibbon of Garden City, N.Y., 6-2, 6-4.

Jungle was four match points ahead of McMannus in the third and deciding set of the singles, but a strong rally by the Berkeley net star pulled him to the front and to victory. McMannus is a former star from the University of California and Jungle played his college tennis at Tulane. McMannus is ranked 16th in the nation.

Fists Fly As Seals Beaten By Seattle

SEATTLE (AP)—The Seattle Totems, scoring at a slow goal-a-period pace, blanked the San Francisco Seals 3-0 last night to give goalie Jimmy McLeod his first shutout of the Western Hockey League season.

Seattle's defense was more than a match for the lackluster offense displayed by the defending Lester Patrick Cup champions. The Seals got only 14 shots at McLeod—just two in the final period.

The game was enlivened by a free-for-all in the second period. The fracus started when Seattle's Jean Marie Cossette and Eddie Panagabko, captain of the Seals, banged together against the boards. Every player except Seal netminder Bob Perreault got into the act.

That period also saw Seattle's fiery Larry Zeidel get handed a minor and two major penalties. The first major came when he protested a holding penalty. Then he was given a game misconduct for throwing his stick and gloves into the penalty box.

Bob Barlow opened the scoring on a power play midway in the first period. Garry Brisson added the second goal and Cossette closed out the night when he tipped in the puck midway through the final frame.

Warriors Lose To Cincy, Play Detroit Quint Next

Still lacking star center Wilt Chamberlain and a victory in the regular season, the San Francisco Warriors head next for Detroit.

Both San Francisco and Detroit, which meet in the auto capital Wednesday night, possess 0-2 records in the National Basketball Association's Western Division.

The Warriors in their outing yesterday had Cincinnati tied at 21-21, but then never got closer than within four points, losing at Cincinnati, 117-108. Tom Meschery led San Francisco with 28, while Wayne Hightower got 19.

San Francisco, continuing to miss Wilt the Stilt, lost the rebounding tally by a 78-66 count. They didn't, as one fan put it, get too many second shots at the basket.

Cincinnati's Jack Twyman had scoring honors with 31 points, while teammate Oscar Robertson put in 21. Cincinnati is now 1-1 in the NBA's Eastern Division.

Chamberlain has been out of action due to a stomach ailment.

Yanks Now Have 71 Games Prizes

TOKYO (AP)—The United States matched its 1960 haul of Olympic medals today on victories by Mike Larrabee and Edith McGuire plus a second place finish by the equestrian team on the eighth day of competition—a day marked by an Olympic sitdown.

Larrabee, at 30 an old, old man for a sprinter, picked the best of all possible spots to win his first major race.

The high school teacher from Fillmore, Calif., stormed home the winner in the 400-meter dash in a time of 45.1 seconds, about one yard in front of Yale graduate Wendell Mottley, who was running for Trinidad.

And Miss McGuire, a 20-year-old Tennessee State student who already had a silver medal, was just one-tenth of a second off the world record when she won the women's 200-meter dash in 23 seconds flat.

Those victories, plus the second place finish by the American equestrians in the team three-day event, boosted the United States' leading medal total to 71 — the same as was gleaned in the 1960 Games in Rome. The current haul includes 31 gold medals, 21 silver and 19 bronze.

Russia picked off six medals today and now has 48, including a gold by fencer Grigory Chris in epee and now has 16 gold, 13 silver and 19 bronze. Building the Russian total today was a gold, three silvers and a bronze in Greco-Roman wrestling.

The Russians, who won three gold and two bronze medals in Greco-Roman wrestling in 1960, were a little disappointed with the outcome.

But not so disappointed as Korean flyweight boxer Dong-Kih Choh, who was disqualified in the first round of his bout with Russia's Stanislav Sorokin. The Austrian referee disqualified him for holding his head too low after repeated warnings.

THERE HE SAT

Choh didn't like it. He went to his corner and sat down. And there he sat. And sat. And sat. He sat there for 50 minutes and said he wouldn't leave until he got another fight with the Russian.

Korean officials finally persuaded him to leave, but not before he tossed his corner stool, his sweater and his towel around the ring or a while.

The victories by Larrabee and Miss McGuire were the 11th and 12th in track competition for the United States. The men have won 10 — one more than they gained in Rome—while the women once again swept the dashes and are favored in the 400-meter relay, yet to come.

The track team, however, continued to have surprising ups and downs. Tom O'Hara of Chicago and young Jim Ryun of Wichita, Kan., proved major disappointments when they failed to make the finals of the 1,500-meter run, the metric mile.

DIDN'T HAVE IT

"I don't really know what happened," Ryun said after finishing last in his semifinal. "I felt good before the race. I just didn't have it."

He was timed in a disappointing 3:55 flat. Under the arbitrary formula of adding 17 seconds to arrive at an equivalent time for the mile, the 17-year-old who was the first schoolboy to break the 4-minute mile would have been timed in 4:12.

He trailed heat winner Peter Snell of New Zealand by some 150 yards.

O'Hara, the U.S. national AAU champion, was seventh in his heat in 3:43.4, well off his best time.

Their unhappy results thus left the lean Oregonian, Dyrol Burleson, the only survivor from a squad that was considered the best the United States has had in four decades at this prestigious distance.

Burleson, from Cottage Grove, Ore., won his heat in an excellent 3:41.8, but even that was well off the spectacular showing of Snell, the world record-holder at a mile.

The tireless New Zealander methodically clipped off a time of 3:38.8, equal to a 3:55.8 mile. His lap times of 56.5, 1:55.8 and 2:55.8 left no doubt that he was the man to beat.

BIG SURPRISE

Larrabee's victory ranked along with the surprise triumphs of Billy Mills in the 10,000 and Bob Schul in the 5,000 meters as major form reversals.

The United States was assured of breaking its 1960 medal total when flyweight boxer Bob Carmody, Paterson, N.J., outpointed German Otto Babiasch and moved into the semifinals. Both semifinal losers get bronze medals, but Carmody wasn't impressed.

And, while, the U.S. track team was moving along as well or perhaps better than expected, American athletes also were upholding another tradition. The United States has never won a medal, gold, silver or bronze, in Greco Roman wrestling. And the U.S. had none in the finals this year.

Russia, meanwhile, was expected to grab off a few medals in that sport, and added another when Tamara Press, sister of pentathlon winner Irina Press, won the women's discus throw with an Olympic record 187-10¾.

Karin Balzer of Germany equalled the world record of 10.5 in winning the women's 80-meter hurdles.

The United States was blanked in both events.

Murphy Passes Giants Past San Rafael, 21-0

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Redwood High School has quite a weapon in quarterback Scott Murphy.

Murphy passed for three touchdowns and threw for three extra points to figure in all Redwood's scoring as the Giants whipped San Rafael 21-0 Saturday in College of Marin stadium before a sparce shirt sleeved crowd of 1,300.

The 6-1, 170-pound quarterback completed 16 of 25 passes on the afternoon for 211 yards. Bill Kilcoyne, a 6-2, 195-pound end, must have set some kind of Redwood record by catching 9 of those 16 passes, plus two others for extra points.

Redwood hit its first touchdown in the second quarter, Murphy connecting to Kilcoyne from the six-yard line with 6:10 remaining in the half. It capped a 38-yard drive. The same combination was good for the extra point, giving the Giants a 7-0 lead at intermission.

Next six-pointer came with only 30 seconds left in the third quarter with Murphy this time hitting his other end, Terry Smith, on a play that covered 45 yards. Smith, going up the middle, juggled the ball but held onto it and ran the last 20 yards of the play for the TD. The Murphy-to-Kilcoyne thing hit again for the PAT.

11-YARD AERIAL

Smith scored the last Redwood TD with 8:25 left in the final period, on a 11-yard aerial from Murphy. Smith, who caught four passes on the day for 88 yards, fought his way from the three-yard line and went into the end zone carrying a pair of San Rafael defenders. Murphy threw to wingback Ken Tucker for the 21st point.

The defense of Redwood was too much and the offense of San Rafael was not enough. The Bulldogs couldn't get anything going in the first half as Redwood held them to minus-one yard gained. Not counting their four punts in the first half, the Bulldogs ran a total of 15 plays from the line of scrimmage while Redwood was using 41 plays.

INTERCEPTIONS

The one pass tried by San Rafael quarterback Ken Lampert in the first half was intercepted by Redwood's Tucker. But things were evened up seven plays later when San Rafael's Dave Hammond intercepted a Murphy pass.

Redwood threatened to score late in the second quarter. Murphy threw to Kilcoyne for 10 yards and then to Smith for 28 to take the ball to the San Rafael 10-yard line before the gun ended the first half.

San Rafael never dented the Redwood 20-yard line. Closest the Bulldogs moved the ball was to the Redwood 29 in the final period after quarterback Jay Widmer completed a pass to end Tim Witt on a fourth down play. The play covered 6 yards and if it was for 6 yards and 1 inch the Bulldogs would have had a first down. It was that close when the officials pulled in the chains.

RUN NULLIFIED

If it wasn't for a clipping penalty, the Bulldogs would have had a touchdown in the third period. San Rafael halfback Tim Harr broke free on a run around his own right end on the Bulldogs' 31, and displayed some fancy broken field running for what looked like a S.R. touchdown. But a clipping penalty against San Rafael on the 21 moved the ball back to the Redwood 36. Four plays later, San Rafael's drive bogged down on the 31 and Redwood took over.

Pirates Bomb Tamites 38-7 For 5th Straight

By MAURICE WEINGER

Striking through the air like bolts of lightning, the unbeaten Drake Pirates bombed Tamalpais, 38-7, to capture their fifth straight victory last Saturday at Kentfield.

The air offense by the Pirates was quite dramatic as quarterbacks Allen Simontacchi and Bill Ingram along with fullback Joe DeMasi filled the air with footballs that found their target nine times for 244 yards and four touchdowns.

On the receiving end of five of the passes was the brilliant end Larry Stein. A three-year first string veteran, Stein caught two of the passes for touchdowns, and the other three were key plays that led to the other Drake scores.

The win was Drake's third in MCAL competition and left the Pirates tied with Terra Linda with the Marin Athletic League lead. Another trophy, the Tamalpais Union High School District award, also will stay at Drake as the winner in the three school district. Drake had previously defeated Redwood, 28-6 earlier in the season.

Drake got off to a fast 19-0 lead in the first quarter and then coasted the rest of the way until the fourth quarter when, still anxious to connect with the long pass, scored three more times, the last one a 44-yard pass on the final play of the game.

Stein was the big standout on Drake's first two touchdowns. He caught an 18-yard sideline pass from Simontacchi on the first drive for a first down on the 45 where DeMasi then bulled off right tackle for 29 yards, thanks to a key block from halfback Lean Lazzarini.

Finding it hard to penetrate from the seven, Simontacchi threw the first six point strike to Stein.

On the ensuing kickoff Tamalpais tried to tie the score on a long pass from Will Stubblebine, but the play was intercepted by John Boothby on the 48. Boothby and Simontacchi were thrown for two straight losses to 25 yards. DeMasi, however, fooled the Indian defense on the third down play when a pitch-out to the fullback looked like a run, but before anyone could get near, DeMasi stopped and threw left handed down field toward Stein.

The right end was in the right place—on the Tam 40—and easily outran the defenders for his second score.

Another pass—this time by Tamalpais—gave Drake its third score. Stubblebine again tried a pass but defensive tackle Gerald Feichert grabbed it on the 47 and ran to the endzone untouched.

Stein set up the Drake's fourth score in the last quarter with a nifty 17 yard pass-run from Simontacchi. The Pirates had taken over after a bad Indian punt traveled only eight yards to the 28. Stein moved the ball to the nine. DeMasi tried three times through the middle, but could only net six yards.

Bob Dexter ended the drive, as a fake to DeMasi and a run around right end, was good for the 26th point.

The Drake reserves, with Ingram at the controls, still had two touchdowns left in their air game. Feickert intercepted Randy Fontan's pass on the 35 and Ingram immediately went to the air with a shot to Tony Ravara and came back with less than 10 seconds remaining to hit Brad Kritsky for another six points, this time from 44 yards away.

Extra points were made by DeMasi on a run and Lee Jamison on a tackle eligible pass from Simontacchi.

Tamalpais also used the air lines for its only score. Fontan, shutout on eight previous pass attempts during the first half, made his first connection good for the touchdown.

The thrower his fullback Steve Hewett from the 38 yard line with a shot down the middle that was taken two steps past defensive halfback Mike Miller. The extra point was made by Ralph Gardner.

Sierra Whips Marin, 20-6

By PAUL MILLER

AUBURN—What began as a burst of aggression by the College of Marin Tars ended up in regression here Saturday as the Sierra College Wolverines won the Golden Valley Conference football opener 20 to 6.

Coach Dick Read's Tars, who took over this rodeo stadium and shocked the chaps off the Wolverines the opening minutes of the game, eventually did an outstanding job of helping Sierra take the opener.

It appeared that an enjoyable Saturday evening was in store for more than four bus loads of Marin rooters when the Tars rumbled from their own 26 yard line in 10 plays to score with 8 minutes and 41 seconds still remaining in the first period.

A 14-yard run by halfback Larry Green and a completed pass on a fourth down situation from quarterback Les Wisner to Green that put the ball on the Wolverine 10 yard mark set the Tars up for the early score two plays later. Both plays were keepers by Wisner, who made it to the nine and then the end-zone from a yard out. Green's attempt at the extra point was wide.

But the Tar underdog's honeymoon began to fade two minutes later when, after a Sierra drive, Wolverine fullback Bill Schmidt scored over his own right guard from three yards out. Sierra made good on the PAT kick for a 7-6 lead.

It stayed that way until late in the first half, thanks to Tar linebackers Steve Minutoli and Bill McIntyre and defensive linemen Mike Congdon and Scotty Alexander, and others.

But with only a minute left in the half, Marin's regression began when second string quarterback Bill Gillingham, a man with more potential than any other Tar player, dropped a Sierra fourth-down punt on the Marin 32 yard line.

Sierra recovered it, and in eight plays was eight points ahead. The second TD was tallied by second string fullback, 6-1, 200-pound Pat Harrington (first stringer Schmidt had suffered two fractured ribs during one of the preceding plays).

Harrington carried the ball over his own left guard spot to score. The PAT conversion was good and the count was 14-6, Sierra. An unsuccessful series of Marin offensive plays, including a Sierra interception of Wisner's pass at the Sierra 14, concluded the first period.

Marin finally hit the bottom of its offensive regress in the final minutes of the third quarter. Sierra, hit hard all evening by the Tar defense (in addition to Wolverine Schmidt, 232-pound guard Dennis McLin was taken by ambulance to the hospital after suffering possible neck and head injuries) finally fumbled.

FISTICUFFS

The ball was loose and recovered by the Tars on the Sierra 25 yard line. The Tars were only a touchdown and a field goal behind. Here was their break. And they took about as much advantage of it as many students take advantage of their library: The Tars' halfback Bob Washington fumbled on the subsequent play, and Sierra recovered and dominated everything but interclub fisticuffs during the remainder of the game.

Sierra assured its victory with about a minute and one half left in the game. It took 21 successive plays to score. But the Wolverines did it from three yards out with Harrington again carrying. This time on a literal dive over the Marin left guard position. The PAT kick attempt was blocked.

Despite his bad luck, Washington along with backs John Handly and Dave Cericola were marked as outstanding Tar performers. On the offensive line, assistant coach Jim McGowan gave some credit to the work of Kris Barnett, Gary Frugoli, Bob Stock, Jim Morena and Bill Moore.

Marin's next conference game is set at home against Yuba College, 8 p.m. Friday.

Colts Nip Packers; Lions Blank Bears

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Paul Hornung wore the collar — in more ways than one — and it meant another trip to the cleaners yesterday for the Green Bay Packers.

Hornung, bothered by a pinched shoulder nerve, donned a protective collar yesterday for Green Bay's key National Football League game at Baltimore. Then he missed five successive field goal attempts, the last one backfiring into a 24-21 Colt victory that jolted the Packers' 1964 title hopes.

The Packers have dropped three of six starts and trail the Western Division-leading Colts by two games. The three defeats have been by a total of five points — points that Hornung, the NFL's single-season record holder, failed to produce. He missed extra point kicks in one-point losses to the Colts and Minnesota Vikings.

Green Bay held a 21-17 lead yesterday with less than two minutes remaining when the Colts blocked Hornung's fifth FG try. Jerry Logan scooped up the loose ball and rambled from the Colt 30 to the Packer 34, from where the home club launched its winning drive.

Lenny Moore capped the advance with a five-yard touchdown sprint in the closing seconds and Baltimore had its fifth straight victory after a season-opening loss to Minnesota.

The Detroit Lions strengthened their hold on second place in the West by blanking the Chicago Bears 10-0. The Los Angeles Rams climbed to third with a 42-14 rout of the San Francisco 49ers. The Lions are 4-1-1, the Rams 3-2-1.

SHARE LEAD

In the Eastern Division, St. Louis and Cleveland pulled out narrow victories and remained tied for the lead at 4-1-1. The Cardinals scored two touchdowns in the final half-minute for a 38-24 decision over Washington. The Browns caught Dallas 20-16 on a 54-yard interception return by Bernie Parrish in the fourth quarter.

Old pros Ollie Matson and Sam Baker led the injury-riddled Philadelphia Eagles past the floundering New York Giants 23-17. Bill Brown scored three touchdowns as Minnesota slugged the Pittsburgh Steelers 30-10.

The Buffalo Bills, only unbeaten pro club, stretched their victory string to six by whipping the Kansas City Chiefs 35-22 and the San Diego Chargers walloped the Denver Broncos 42-14 in Sunday's American Football League action.

Hornung, whose injury limited him to four running plays, blew a 17-yard field goal bid in the third period after a goal line stand by the Colts. Baltimore then scored after an 80-yard march for a 17-14 margin.

WINNING TD

The Packers regained the lead in the final quarter when Elijah Pitts returned a punt 65 yards for a touchdown. But the blocked field goal, a 10-yard Johnny Unitas-Butch Wilson pass and a 19-yard pass interference call set the stage for Moore's second — and winning — TD run.

Unitas failed to throw a touchdown pass from the first time this season. He completed 14 of 27 for 157 yards. Green Bay's Bart Starr hit on 18 of 33 passes for 286 yards and one touchdown. Hornungs' field goal shutout dropped him to 5-for-16 for the season.

Detroit's convincing victory over the Bears proved costly. Starting quarterback Earl Morrall suffered a broken collarbone in a first-quarter pile-up and may be lost for the season. Milt Plum did some fancy relief pitching, including a 10-yard TD strike to Jim Gibbons. Wayne Walker added a 46-yard field goal.

The Lions' rugged defense held the defending champions, now 2-4, to 29 yards rushing and picked off three passes.

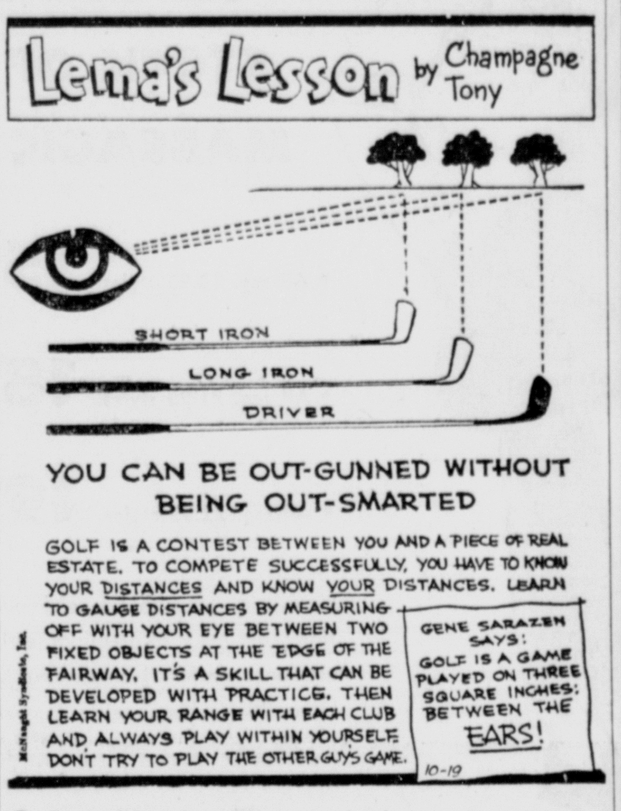

Charley Johnson fired a 14-yard payoff pass to Bobby Joe Conrad with 26 seconds to play and Pat Fisher lugged a last-second interception 39 yards for another score as the Cardinals snapped a 24-24 deadlock. Jim Martin's 24-yard field goal had tied it for the Redskins with 1:50 remiaining.

BROWN RAMBLES

The Browns trailed 16-13 in the fourth quarter when Parrish raced the distance after grabbing a Don Meredith pass. Don Perkins, who played despite cracked ribs and ran for 96 yards, had put the Cowboys ahead with a one-yard scoring plunge. Cleveland's Jim Brown regained the league rushing lead from Perkins by reeling off 188 yards.

Matson, a 12-year veteran, scored on a four-yard run in the opening minute and raced 54 yards for another Philadelphia touchdown. Baker, a 10-year pro, kicked three field goals despite a sprained ankle. The defeat virtually killed New York's chances of repeating as Eastern Division champs. The Giants are 1-4-1.

Bill Brown caught two touchdown passes from scrambling Fran Tarkenton and bulled a yard for another score as the Vikings whipped the Steelers. Carl Eller and Jim Marshall led Minnesota's second-half defensive charge that tossed Pittsburgh passer Ed Brown five times for 45 yards in losses.

Colts, Yanks To Open Houston's New Domed Park

HOUSTON (AP) — The National League Houston Colts and the American League champion New York Yankees will open Houston's $24 million domed sports stadium with an exhibition baseball game next April.

The Colts then will play the Yankees and the Baltimore Orioles in a special pre-season weekend that will include five games in three days April 9-11.

Colt President Roy Hofheinz announced yesterday that the Yankees will open the stadium against the Colts Friday night, April 9, and will continue a three-game series against the Houston team Saturday night, April 10, and a Sunday afternoon game, April 1..

The American League third place Orioles will meet the Colts in an afternoon game Saturday, April 10, and Sunday night, April 11.

Lawmakers Not Foes, Police Told

The state legislature is sympathetic to law enforcement but it has the responsibility to see that the enforcement is reasonable and fair, State Sen. John F. McCarthy told Marin County law enforcement officers Friday at the Civic Center.

McCarthy gave the legislative viewpoint of law enforcement at the afternoon session of an all day law enforcement seminar.

Some people feel that the courts and the legislature are not sympathetic to law enforcement because of recent cases involving confessions search and seizure and wire tapping, he said.

"I will argue that point with anyone," McCarthy said. "We in the legislature are bound to be sympathetic to law enforcement. We enact the laws." he said.

At the same time there are constitutional safeguards, guarantees of rights which must remain inviolate.

"Where those guarantees have not been observed the courts have stepped in and rendered decisions upholding the rights of individuals," McCarthy said. "Sometimes these persons have been law violators, in fact they have been guilty as hell. But two wrongs have never made a right and, under our American system of government it is the duty of each of us to see that we never permit this to happen."

McCarthy claimed that some of the legislative action in recent years has been "unfairly criticized by some people in law enforcement" because of a failure to understand legislative procedures.

He outlined the legislative process and pointed out that two committees are working year round on studying law enforcement problems.

He suggested that law enforcement officers make their proposals known to their legislators or have their association present it to one of the committees for study.

The law enforcement officers also heard Asst. Dist. Atty. Leighton Hatch criticize the State Supreme Court's Dorado decision as "far too drastic."

The court's ruling "opens a Pandora's box of problems for law enforcement," Hatch said.

Under the ruling once an investigation focuses on a suspect he must be informed of his right to consult an attorney before answering any police questions and also be informed of his right to keep quiet.

Hatch said the majority of convictions cannot be obtained without evidence of admissions by the suspect. "Any good lawyer will instruct his client to say nothing to the police," he said.

"The ruling is a particular problem in vehicular offenses, narcotics and prostitution cases, Hatch said.

He said he hopes the court's re-decision will clear up whether the rule applies before or after the arrest and whether it applies to vehicular cases.

J. J. Finnegan, special agent for the Pacific Telephone and Telephone Co., told officers how the telephone company can aid them in investigation and provide information they need.

Bay Crossing To Be Discussed

A second crossing of San Francisco Bay from San Francisco to Marin County will be discussed at a public hearing of the Bay Area Transportation Study Commission at the Civic Center Friday at 10 a.m.

Transit planning proposals for the North Bay area will also be discussed and Marin County officials will present reports on the status of current transportation problems and planning proprags in the county.

The commission's study director will give details of the commission's program of planning and study for the nine-couty Bay area. Final action is expected on a working agreement between the commission, the state department of public works and the Assn. of Bay Area Governments.

The commission is preparing a master plan for transportation in the Bay region, to be completed in 1967.

Judge Talks For State Park Bonds

Proposition 1 for a 150-million-dollar state bond issue would save California money by allowing purchase of recreational and park land before prices go higher, Municipal Court Judge Leonard Thomas said Friday night.

The judge, who heads the Marin citizens committee for Proposition 1, told a meeting of the Muir Woods Park Improvement Assn. that opponents of the proposition are wrong in saying the purchase of land by the state erodes the tax base. Judge Thomas said the growth of state recreation facilities, with its associated growth of commercial facilities and transportation actually contributes to the tax base.

The association is to meet this week with Supt. James McLaughlin of Muir Woods National Monument and Supt. George Holmboe of Tamalpais State park to discuss ways of solving the litter problem on county roads leading into the two areas.

Role Of Women In Politics Greater Than Ever Before

Never before have so many prominent women—Republican and Democrat—taken such an active part in a national election.

There's a good reason. Never before have women had such a wide margin of votes over men—roughly 4 million more ballots.

According to the census bureau, 59.2 million women and

MURIEL HUMPHREY

54.6 million men are eligible to vote in November.

But women have not exercised their majority franchise. In the past, as a result, they have come out just about even with the men in votes actually cast.

Because of their numerical edge and their intense interest in the elections, however, some politicians look for the female vote this year to be larger than the male turnout.

The public opinion polls show President Johnson an even greater favorite with women voters than with men.

BOTH JOHNSON and Republican Barry M. Goldwater have paid proper tribute to the role of women as a crucial factor in elections.

Peggy Goldwater is not as politically-minded as Lady Bird. But she has pitched in to help her husband and now says she is getting to like campaigning.

Mrs. Goldwater politics mostly at her husband's side. A pretty addition to the GOP campaign is Stephanie Miller, wife of the vice presidential candidate. Her daughters — Elizabeth Ann, 20, and Karen, 17—also have taken the plunge in behalf of the GOP ticket.

Mrs. Miller's counterpart, Muriel Humphrey, a long-time campaigner, has been making solo trips through the Midwest and doing what most candidates' wives try to avoid—talking about the issues.

THE FIRST LADY is the undisputed "pro" in the field. However, the First Lady says she is ready to hand over the crown to her daughter Luci. Both Johnson girls . . . Luci and Lynda . . . cut their teeth on politics. And no one is more amused and delighted with their off-the-cuff speeches on the stump than the President.

The high spot of the First Lady's campaigning was the four-day whistle-stop tour of the South. The President is banking on that effort to help bring defecting Dixie back into the Democratic column.

ON CAPITOL HILL, most of the lady lawmakers are on the hustings to hold their jobs. Of the 12 women in the house, however, two are dropouts. Rep. Elizabeth Kee (D-W.Va) is bowing out because of poor health. Her son, James, hopes to take her seat. Rep. Irene Baker, Republican of Tennessee, who served out the term of her late husband, also is retiring.

The two women in the Senate—Republican Margaret Chase Smith of Maine and Democrat Maurine Neuberger of Oregon—may be getting some female company in the most exclusive club in the world.

In Pennsylvania, Genevieve Blatt, Democratic secretary of internal affairs of the state, is running against GOP Sen. Hugh Scott. In Michigan, Elly Peterson, former GOP vice chairman, is trying to unseat her Democratic opponent, Sen. Philip A. Hart.

IN ONE CONGRESSIONAL campaign in Illinois, two women are opposing each other. Mrs. Poppy X. Mitchell, a Democrat, is a candidate for the 15th district of Illinois against the Republican incumbent, Charlotte Reid.

Other women in the Democratic ranks who are running for the House are Miss Frances McGovern of Ohio's 14th District, Mrs. Eleanor Clark French of New York's 17th District and Mrs. Frances J. Mills of Kentucky's 5th District.

IN ANOTHER ILLINOIS contest Mrs. Stillman J. Standard of Makanda, a Republican, is running against incumbent Democrat Kenneth Gray for the state's far south 21st Congressional district.

PARTAKING OF the magic potion, Mrs. Kenneth Howard of the Jolly Rogers Chapter, Children's Home Society, drinks deeply, and, emerges in a puff of smoke as one of the fearsome witches ready for the haunting at 513 B St., San Rafael. The chapter's Halloween haunted house will open creaking doors Saturday and Sunday as well as Oct. 28 through 31, for Marin's brave youngsters. Halloween Haunted House To Open Witches, ghosts and goblins are promised by the members of the Jolly Rogers Chapter of the Children's Home Society to entertain Marin youngsters with a "Haunted House" for Halloween.

The haunting will take place at 513 B Street, San Rafael, where the creaking doors will be opened to the public on Saturday and Sunday. The house will be open again Halloween week, Oct. 28 through 31. Hours will be 3 to 9 p.m. each day.

The committee describes the scene:

"What once was a living room will become Vampire's lounge, with her pet snakes and ghosts on hand to add to the festivities. If the wind is right and the moon is bright, it will be possible to hear the voices in the graveyard singing Halloween harmony. Some may even "rise" to the occasion and greet guests personally. Below, in the cellar, many other members of the gruesome group will be dying to welcome all.

House haunters include Mesdames William Wilson Jr. and James Kean, assistant chairman; Douglas Ascher, publicity; James McConnell, assistant publicity; Richard Miller, prizes; John Colombo, audio; Robert Freeman, makeup; Mrs. Paul Bates, costumes; Charles Price, Irving Chapman Jr., posters and hand bills; Randall Bechtel and Don Dalpino, group scheduling.

Proceeds of the project will go to the Children's Home Society of California, a non-profit adoption agency.

Corinne Swall Will Sing At Outdoor Art Club Meet

"Music Magic" presented by soprano Corinne Swall will be the program for Thursday's guest day of the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley.

Her operatic selections will include the mad scene from Donizetti's "Lucia di Lammermoor" and the Queen of the Night's area from Mozart's "The Magic Flute."

Also on the program will be songs by Ravel and Schubert, as well as Creole folk songs and a group of Broadway show tunes.

Corinne is a native of Marin, a graduate of Tamalpais High School and the College of Marin, and recipient of a Marin Music Chest scholarship. She was graduated from the University of California and the Juilliard School of Music.

During two years in Europe she was the star of the Carre

CORINNE SWALL

Theater in Amsterdam, and she has been a leading soprano with the Philadelphia Co-Opera Company.

She has been a soloist with the Philharmonic Orchestra and the San Francisco Symphony and a prominent performer with the San Francisco Opera Guild, the Los Angeles and the Oakland Civic Light Opera.

Receiving guests will be Mesdames Walter H. Schroeder and John M. Nahapiet. Mrs. Russell Mills will do the decorations.

Mrs. Edward W. Johnson is tea chairman, and Mesdames Joseph W. Taylor, Ray Hawksley, Lyle Heer and Miss Lois Walker will pour.

New club members are Mesdames Leonard Peck, Frank Royse and James Mason.

MASQUERADE AHOY!

Heralding the forthcoming "Masquerade Ball" to be given on Saturday by the Women's Auxiliary of the Gallinas Yacht Club are, from left, Mesdames Hugo Phillips, co-chairman; Harry Pryor and Vern Rasmussen. A midnight buffet will be served for the event to be held at Temple Rodef Sholom in Santa Venetia. Mrs. Ed Laherty is dance chairman and Mrs. Rasmussen is reservations chairman.

Marinites Will Attend Ceremony

Marin members who will attend the presentation of the stained glass plaque insignia to San Ramon Village Congregational Church on Sunday given by the Bay Area Chapter of the Huguenot Society of California are Mesdames William Fenwick and Janice Hoyt of Mill Valley; Fred Martin of San Rafael and George White of Belvedere. Also Messrs. Walter D. Kephart of San Anselmo, Ralph E. Mott of Greenbrae and Leonard E. Weisenburg Jr. of San Rafael.

Solid Reading Growth Urged

By DAVID NYDICK
UPI Education Specialist

A strong basic reading program is essential to a child's academic success. Research indicates that sound growth in the reading area has important implications for all children from the successful student to the potential dropout.

The need for learning basic skills is only part of a successful reading program. The skills are only valuable if they are used. This refers to the need for growth in interest and motivation for reading. It is a skill which will unlock unlimited knowledge and enjoyment.

In the intermediate grades a reading program should emphasize experience, pleasure, comprehension, critical analysis, research skills and creativity. The useful applications of reading in our culture include academic as well as recreational purposes.

PERHAPS the emphasis in a reading program should change. The learning of basic skills should be stressed in the primary grades. As these skills are mastered this part of the program can gradually be replaced with an emphasis upon the use of these skills in the other areas of the curriculum, bringing about an understanding and interest in the usefulness of reading.

HOW CAN THESE aims be accomplished? Obviously, reading is an important part of the total school program. Many of you have had the experience of your child saying that there was no reading homework after having spent two hours doing research on a social studies project. It is important for him to realize he is having reading experiences without being in a reading lesson.

THERE IS constant talk about individual differences. A reading program which uses only one text book series cannot meet the different needs of students. The use of various texts and supplementary materials is necessary. The need for an expanded use of material becomes more important in upper grades. It is too confining to stay tied to one book. A child can pursue his individual interests when he has an opportunity to choose from many books.

The development of interest will be one of the keys to learning. The kind of help which will accomplish this is based upon the use of materials which will create interest and excitement. The availability of many different books is one way of helping. To accomplish this do not overlook the value of a library. It is there the children can truly be individuals. Each may choose a book which meets his own particular needs.

YOU HOLD THE KEY. Consider your child's major interests. Help him pursue them. His interest and progress in reading will be reflected in his total attitude towards school. Reading should become a part of the child's adult life, as a key to knowledge as well as a source of enjoyment.

Teens Will Find 'Gonk' Irresistable

It takes a teen-ager to appreciate the "Gonk" but they find him irresistable. The far-out stuffed dolls, created by British TV cartoonist Robert Benson, are designed to "make people happy." The selection includes Mac-Gonk, a bag-piper; Eskimo-Gonk, the cool one; Kookie-Gonk, the clown; Gone-Gonk, the hepster; Fred-Gonk, the people's Gonk and Upside down Gonk, who couldn't care less.

Irish Lead National Calorie Count

By JACK BRANNAN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you count calories and not content, it's the Irish who are the world's heartiest eaters.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture took a widespread calorie count for a three-year period ending in 1962 which determined the people of Ireland consume more calories than anyone else. Whiskey, which contains about 85 calories per ounce, and other alcoholic beverages were ignored.

The result of the count showed that each Irishman consumed an average of 3,470 calories. Only the residents of New Zealand came close to challenging the Irish. They averaged 3,460 calories.

The Agriculture Department said it prepared the report as part of its market development program.

"THE UNITED STATES is the only nation that goes to the trouble of preparing such a survey to find out the world's needs," said Wilhelm Anderson, chief of the department's Foreign Regional Analysis Division, which prepared the report. Anderson said reports would be issued later this year on Africa and the Communist nations of eastern Europe.

The world average calorie consumption, computed by nation and excluding the Communist countries and Africa, was about 2,700 daily. The Food and Nutrition Board of the National Academy of Sciences—National Research Council recommends a minimum of 2,900 calories daily for the average male between 18 and 35 years of age.

DENMARK RANKED third behind Ireland and New Zealand in calorie consumption. Its daily average was 3,380. Others in the world's top 10 calorie consuming nations were the United Kingdom 3,280, Argentina 3,220, Australia and Switzerland 3,210, the United States 3,190 and Canada and Finland 3,110.

The citizens of Haiti had the poorest calorie diet in the world. They averaged 1,780 per day.

On a hemispheric basis, the peoples of Europe averaged 2,900 calories daily, those of the Western Hemisphere 2,870, and those of Asia including Australia and New Zealand, 2,322.

The Agriculture Department also tabulated protein and fat consumption.

THE FRENCH LED the count of protein with an average of 103 grams per day. The Argentines were second with 101.3.

The Food and Nutrition Board recommends a minimum of 70 grams of protein daily.

Other nations in the top 10 in protein consumption were Australia, Urguay, Greece, Canada, the United States, Finland, Denmark and Ireland.

The Dominican Republic, which shares the island of Hispaniola with Haiti, had the world's lowest protein consumption — 41.1 grams daily.

THE DANES, RENOWNED for pastry and dairy products, led the world in consumption of fat. They averaged 160.2 grams daily — 13.9 more than residents of the United States, the runner-up.

Others among the top 10 fat consuming nations were the United Kingdom 142.7, Australia 142.5, Canada 140.4, Sweden 132.9, Ireland 130.6, the Netherlands 129.3, Switzerland 128.7 and Norway 128.4.

Pakistan, where the Moslem religion prohibits use of pork grease, had the world's lowest fat consumption average — 27.2 per day.

IN ALL NATIONS EXCEPT Canada, cereal products provided the principal source of calories. The Canadians received most calories from meat, fish and eggs.

Animal products were the principal direct source of protein for all nations except Haiti, India and Indonesia, where peas and beans were the main source.

All of the Asiatic nations rated far down on the scale of calorie, protein and fat consumption. Nationalist China topped the Asiatic list on calorie consumption with an average of 3,440 daily. Japan was first in proteins with 69.8 grams daily. Ceylon led in fat consumption.

But the western hemisphere had the world's wost fed area, the island of Hispaniola shared by Haiti and the Dominican Republic.

ARGENTINA WAS THE BEST fed nation of the hemisphere. It led its neighbors in calories and proteins. The United States was second in both categories. It led only in the consumption of fat.

By dominating the top 10 nations in all three categories, European nations were considered the world's best fed.

Demo Registration Gain Fires Up Both Parties

A definite spurt in campaign activity has been noticeable during the past week.

We hope that on Nov. 3, the voters will react with as big a turnout as possible so that the candidates elected and the measures approved or rejected will be truly representattive of the public's will.

One reason for the sudden spurt in campaigning is of course obvious. Each candidate, and proponents and opponents of each proposition or measure want to get in their last licks before the showdown.

But there might be another reason, quite unique this year. That is the effect of the voter registration figures announced for the November election.

Democrats gained heavily throughout the state, especially in Marin County.

Traditionally Marin County has been a Republican stronghold. As recently as last June, during the primaries, Marin Republican registrations held a 4,244 margin over the Democrats.

But now, the latest county figures show Republicans with 42,042 and Democrats with 41,350. The Republican edge is now so slight (only 692 out of more than 86,000 voters in the county) that it's a virtual toss-up.

Naturally, the Democratic camp was elated. Top Democrats from Governor Edmund G. Brown on down predicted a "Democratic sweep." Democratic candidates, even the lesser known who realized it was going to be an uphill fight, began to raise their hopes.

The results of that elation are showing in the last minute flurry of activity.

The same registration figures have had a like effect on the Republicans, but for a different reason.

Republican incumbents like State Sen. John F. McCarthy and Assemblyman William T. Bagley, who have retained their seats handily in past elections, realize they are up against a tougher fight this year.

It's even tougher for Congressman Don H. Clausen, who has a tremendous Democratic registration lead to overcome in the six counties. Of the six, only Marin shows a Republican lead, and in the five others from here to Del Norte, the Democrats have a tremendous edge.

Because the Republicans have slipped in their registration drives, their candidates will be digging in even harder to make up for the setback. They will be fighting perhaps their toughest fight in their political careers.

The least the voters can do is to show up in full force at the polls and give their candidates the backing they deserve.

A King Snake In The Basement

The Lady of our house was recently frightened by what she thought was a rattler. She had gone to the basement for a hoe to work in the garden when the three foot long snake appeared near her. She thought she heard it rattle, so she ran upstairs and called the Humane Society.

The Society's man came running. He quickly found it—a King Snake. A bit chagrined, we imagine, but justly relieved, our Lady took the man's advice and left it in our basement.

We now have a living mouse and rat trap in our basement, as well as a killer of rattlesnakes. It's a beauty, with black and white rings. No need for us to buy rat poison this year.

State Bond Propositions May Be On Way Out; Pay-As-You-Go In

By EDWIN S. CAPPS

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — If 380 million dollars is added to 260 million dollars, it gives a total of 640 million. Half of this is 320 million and this plus 100 million is a total of 420 million dollars.

THIS BIT OF BIG-FIGURE addition is the core of the problem the 1965 legislature may be asked to solve in the way of providing new state revenues.

The Nov. 3 general election ballot has the 380-million-dollar bond issue for state construction, including higher education, and 260 million dollars for state school building aid loans for classroom construction. Both bond issues are designed to cover a two-year period, so the estimate for one year would be 320 million.

This could be the last year for both types of bond issues, whether or not the voters approve them in November.

Assembly Speaker Jesse M. Unruh (D-Inglewood), speaking recently in favor of the 150-million-dollar bond issue for beaches and parks, noted it is the only issue of the three which fits into the traditional purpose of bonds. In other words, these bonds would be a one-time expenditure.

Not so with the state construction and school building aid bonds. They have been coming along at regular intervals and there's no indication this won't continue.

So Unruh said this is the last time he will support bonds for recurring expenditures. A resolution to that effect was approved by the Assembly this year and the Senate adopted one by Sen. George Miller Jr. (D-Martinez) along the same lines.

BOTH MILLER and Unruh have found considerable support for a return to pay-as-you-go from various organizations in the state. And Legislative Analyst A. Alan Post has given some grim forecasts of what happens if the bonding program continues at the rate of the past six or seven years.

The other 100 million dollars mentioned earlier to be added to the total of 320 million with the return to pay-as-you-go is the amount to which the state already is committed in new money for the 1964 educational finance bill.

Thus the 1965 legislature likely will have the task of determining where and how to raise upwards of 400 million dollars a year in new or additional taxes. It's true the state will get somewhat of a windfall from the East Wilmington oil field off the coast of Long Beach. But 1.75 billion dollars spread over 35 years amounts to only 50 million dollars a year and this won't solve the problem.

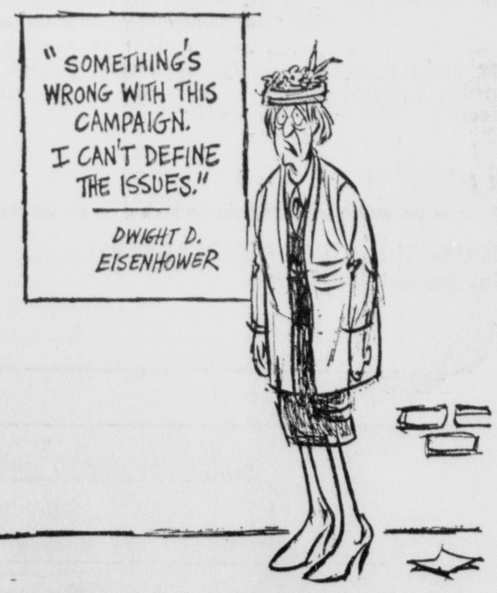

THE ADMINISTRATION of Gov. Edmund G. Brown, usually attentive to the wishes of organized labor, has indicated it would be most reluctant to call for a flat one-cent increase in the state's three-cent sales tax. This, of course, would be the quickest and surest revenue producer and would bring in from 250 to 300 million dollars in one shot.

But labor has always opposed this as discriminatory against the wage earner. The administration has indicated it might turn instead to a broadening of the sales tax base to services and there are estimates this might produce nearly as much as the added one cent.

However, one big field of service taxes — the so-called room tax on hotels and motels — was authorized for local jurisdiction by the legislature. Most counties already are considering or have adopted such a tax.

The cigarette tax might be a popular levy to increase, in view of recent adverse reports on smoking. But this produces less than 25 million dollars per each cent of added tax and last reports show a decline in the habit.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Barry's Hecklers Draw Criticism

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Last Friday night I was fortunate in being able to attend the rally for Senator Goldwater at Fisherman's Wharf. . . . I was not able to see Senator Goldwater very well because of the crowd of people, but I did see the opposition group who were there to heckle. . . .

All I can say is, if I were voting for the Democrat candidate, I would be more than embarrassed knowing that this element was representing me. . . . They were all in need of a bath, they were ill-mannered. . . . These are the results of the last 20 years of having leaders . . . who have found it easier to appease and citizens too lazy to think. . . .

I am tired of replacing bumper strips . . . ripped off of my car and being yelled at by these young hoodlums — representatives of the Democratic Party.

I feel sorry for these people as they do not have self-respect or pride in their Country. I pray that God gives them the light to start thinking and acting as Americans should before it is too late. Remember, you have a choice this Election Day—Freedom or Socialism!

Proposition 14 And Gainful Work

Editor, Independent-Journal:

The facts of life and living underlying Proposition 14 are the same as those facing every human being . . . nothing is produced without work . . . no man . . . can work unless he can . . . use land. He can own it or rent it, or . . . use it free. But in order to create anything, he must have access to the use of land. . . . If he wants more than he can produce with his bare hands, the labor he applies to the earth beneath his feet must be in excess of his daily needs. If he has this surplus, he can capitalize it and add to his own wealth. Irrevocably, he will also add to the well-being of the entire community.

The problem remaining is to assure more men that the surplus they create will be capitalized by themselves. Equitable use of land is a better way to assure this elevating result. Proposition 14 will restrict some willing and able men from accomplishing this. . . . There is no fallacy in letting a man earn as much as he can. He becomes a producer of wealth the minute he goes to work, and what better answer to poverty? Don't restrict him by limiting his use of the land.

Reader Examines Foreign Policy

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Before we buy the "bi-partisan foreign policy" President Johnson desires we should examine its results. Twenty short years ago communism had only a tenuous hold on Russia, while today over a billion people are behind the iron and bamboo curtains, and not one country there ever voted for a communistic government in a free election. Under the policy, our president and state department surrendered to communistic tyranny Poland, Lithuania, Latvia, Yugoslavia and North Korea, all former allies, and East Germany . . . Hungary, Bulgaria, Romania and Albania.

They stood idly by while Czechoslovakia was taken over. They refused to aid revolts in Hungary, East Germany and Poland. They refused aid to Chiang Kai-shek thereby bringing Mao to power. . . .

They then armed Sukarno's forces so he could weld a communistic ring around our friends in Southeast Asia . . . The state department hoisted Castro to power, concealing the adverse intelligence reports from the president. . . .

Please note that I haven't touched on South America, the Arabian nations fiasco, etc., etc.

Urges Vote For School Bonds

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am a Mill Valley resident attending the University of California at Berkeley where crowded classrooms make all of us aware of the importance of Proposition 2, the College Bond issue.

With nearly 100,000 more students due in our colleges and university within the next three years . . . more classrooms must be built. Without them . . . students will be denied . . . or at best will receive a less adequate education. . . .

I am grateful to the citizens of our state. . . . I am hoping that others who follow will have the same chance and that those who can vote will vote yes on Prop. 2 on November 3.

GOP For LBJ— And Feet Of Clay

Editor, Independent-Journal:

An Open Letter to Republicans for Johnson:

Where are you now? You have always been Republicans, good Republicans. How can you . . . ignore the stench of corruption, immorality and hypocrisy coming from behind the closed doors of the Democratic Party?

How can you support a man such as Lyndon Johnson? . . . Prior to . . . 1959, Johnson voted over 18 times for segregation. . . .

Perhaps you support him because of his high moral leadership of such associates as Bobby Baker and Billy Sol Estes or the latest, Walter Jenkins. . . .

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A PRESS SERVICE has unearthed some mighty peculiar rulings made by authorities in recent weeks. In Mexico City, for example, the Police Chief decreed, "Traffic policemen must shave off their mustaches. Instead of being a symbol of virility, the mustache has become a ridiculous facial adornment that belongs only in cowboy operas." In Bristol, England, a magistrate decided that "A glass of beer will be considered a full glass of beer in this court even if, according to the plaintiff, three fourths of it is foam."

Polls Hint History-Making LBJ Landslide In New England

BOSTON—The only political question in this part of the country is not whether Lyndon Johnson is going to carry most of New England, but whether all of New England is going Democratic — for the presidency—and thereby dump all past precedents into Boston harbor.

The prospect is that Sen. Barry Goldwater may not get a single electoral vote of the entirety of the six New England states.

Neither the Democrats nor the Republicans feel comfortable with what they see. The Democrats feel it can't be that good and the Republicans feel it can't be that bad, but neither side can find any real basis for disproving the evidence.

The evidence is that:

Rhode Island and Connecticut are secure for Johnson.

MASSACHUSETTS — well, this state is not just secure for Johnson, it is going to go for the president even more solidly than in 1960 when JFK got 60 per cent of the total vote. Everything points to Johnson's appreciably outdistancing the late president in his home state.

Vermont, where the state's traditional Republicanism has been invulnerable since the Republican Party was invented, is tilting precariously toward the Democratic nominee.

New Hampshire Republicans vetoed Goldwater in the primary last March and no change in sentiment can be detected.

In Maine the political reporters can hardly believe their eyes—they see so much support for LBJ. And these State of Mainers have not given their electoral vote to a Democratic president in more than 50 years and even then — in the Taft-Roosevelt split of 1912—it was only by a thin plurality.

THE REPUBLICANS here in Massachusetts simply could not believe their own polls—so they did it all over again. Right after the San Francisco convention their own private surveys came up with 79 per cent for Johnson. Obviously that couldn't be true, they assured themselves. So, after waiting a few weeks, they did it again to find out how wrong the poll had been the first time or how substantially Goldwater had changed the picture. This time it came out 80 per cent for Johnson.

There is not a pro-Goldwater newspaper in the city of Boston and few in all of New England. In Boston all, except the Christian Science Monitor, are supporting the president. The Monitor is not taking sides and the significance of this neutrality is that this is the first time in many years that the Monitor has refrained from endorsing the Republican nominee.

There is a wide current of anti-Goldwaterism in all three of the most Republican of the New England states. In the New Hampshire primary, where Senator Goldwater campaigned long and vigorously and lost overwhelmingly to Henry Cabot Lodge, less than one-third of the Republican votes went to Goldwater. A substantial Republican defection is expected in November.

The tide is running toward Johnson in Vermont. Four of the state's biggest newspapers are backing the Democratic candidate for the first time and many of the GOP leaders who were against Goldwater at San Francisco have shown no sign of changing their attitude since.

MOST NEW ENGLAND Republicans are "moderates" and in Maine they are moderate with a will. Many are following the lead of Rep. Stanley R. Tupper, one of the most popular of Maine's congressional delegation, in turning away from Goldwater. It isn't that Johnson is evoking any ecstatic enthusiasm—he isn't—but Goldwater is evoking even less.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

Anti-U.S. Sukarno Still Gets Our Cash

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—It's incredible, but a large amount of U.S. aid is still being dished out to Indonesia's war-mongering, Kremlin-truckling President Sukarno.

That isn't all. In addition to getting an estimated 46 million dollars in economic and military aid this year, another 13 million is tentatively budgeted for the woman-chasing, swashbuckling Soviet lackey in 1965.

THIS ASTONISHING policy is being pursued by President Lyndon B. Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk notwithstanding Sukarno's recent taunting insult, "To hell with U.S. aid," his warring against Malaysia for the publicly avowed purpose of "crushing" that newly-independent nation, his covert threats to attack the Philippines, and his flagrant toadying to the Communists.

At last week's Cairo conference of so-called "non-aligned" countries, he truculently sponsored a Peking-inspired resolution denouncing "co-existence" with "Western Imperialist powers."

During the stormy Senate debate over the president's demand for a 3.5-billion-dollar foreign aid budget, an amendment was adopted by an overwhelming 62-to-28 majority barring aid to the strutting Indonesian dictator. Whereupon the president personally got busy and high-pressured members of the House-Senate conference committee to scuttle this provision.

He got his way.

Whereupon Sen. Wayne Morse (D-Ore.) served notice this fight would be vigorously renewed next year. "We are determined to put an end to this disreputable aid program to Sukarno," he told the Senate. "The kind of aid we are furnishing him has nothing in the world to do with helping the people of Indonesia to live better, with raising their standard of living. It has got to stop."

Since 1949, the U.S. has poured economic and military aid into Indonesia for an overall total of 780 million dollars.

These figures do not include the still-incomplete Indonesian aid expenditures this year, estimated at nearly 50 million dollars, and three expensive "good will" trips Sukarno made to the U.S. in 1956, 1960 and 1961.

DURING THESE JUNKETS he demanded and got a harem of "call girls"—with unofficial State Department assistance.

In denouncing the conference committee's backstage scuttling of the Senate amendment cutting off aid to Sukarno, Sen. Milward Simpson (R-Wyo.) caustically noted a number of ironic paradoxes in the Johnson administration's policy, as follows:

Indonesian army, navy and air force officers and technicians are being trained here—at the same time Sukarno is waging war on Malaysia and threatening to attack the Philippines. Until recently Indonesians were brought here for extensive guerrilla and counter-insurgency training.

INDONESIAN POLICE are being trained in the U.S. and considerable money is being spent to modernize their communications, expand their transport facilities and improve their supply system. In the blunt opinion of one congressman, "American taxpayers are footing the bill for this so Sukarno will not lose control of his island nation."

Newsroom Life Compared To Job With Tomato Cannery

LIFE ON A JOURNAL, as life in a tomato cannery where I once worked, is busy.

Please understand, it is very serious. If I could count the crises that arise daily, you would be amazed. This has nothing to do with obituaries. When you are born, the newspaper gives you about five lines. It is enough. When you die, you get about 25, varying with the number of activities you have pursued.

But the Fourth Estate is never dull because, as the cliche goes, "you meet such interesting people."

The other day, for example, we met via a tintype and letter, a wonderful "over 80" lady. She signed her name: Madame Fifi Paris Vallejo and left the letter and contents with Dag at Del's. Names make news and some names are magic.

Madame Fifi wrote four pages about painted letter boxes, saying it was her paternal grandfather, Albert Potts, a Pennsylvania Quaker, who patented the letter box. Not only that, he invented the combined letter box and lamp post in 1855, "the convenience of the light from the lamp is a desideratum the advantages of which are evident," said she.

She enclosed a picture of a woman mailing a love letter in such a box plus a tintype of Potts. "I have a similar one so keep this one if you wish," she said. The letter is a prize and my only hope is that my green grocer is not also receiving letters from Madame Fifi.

IT IS NATIONAL Newspaper Week, a time to examine or to chronicle, whichever the journalist deems most dire.

We decided to examine some friends and a relative on what they look for first in a newspaper: "Sports," says Junky Corder; "the funnies," says Son One, Steve; but most heartening is that from Harry Phillips, who said he has just returned from Sioux City to his home in Stinson Beach and boy, what a difference.

"I look for the current news first and, secondly, I always look at the editorial page," said Phillips. "And then fully read the paper." Now, there is a real reader.

John Dewey, librarian, puts newspapers under OOO, general works, meaning they deal with all knowledge.

We have had dog stories, broken-down stair stories, school stories and don't-cut-down-that-tree stories, tiki stories, fire stories, murders and cats-up-the-tree stories. And, inevitably, someone will walk in the office door, as today, and ask, "Are you interested in a human interest story?" Of course.

Alexander Davidson of Mill Valley said that last week he threw his back out of whack and it was a terrible trial for him. His wife, going to a telephone booth to call her daughter in San Jose, left her black address book in the booth inadvertently.

A COUPLE OF DAYS later the Davidsons, who have no phone, got the book back in the mail from M. Gray, service representative of the telephone company, who said: "Dear Mr. Davidson. Enclosed is a memo book I assume is yours. It was placed in our depository over the weekend. Since it was not readily identified, I called the most frequently listed name, which happened to be your daughter in San Jose. She told me it might be yours. With our best regards, M. Gray."

"It is an attitude we ought to cultivate," said Davidson. "This would never happen in San Francisco. I will thank him personally."

Over the years I must have heard all the newspaper cliches: "The power of the press," "The news like squirrels ran," "Today's newspaper is tomorrow's fish wrapper" and "All the news that's fit to print." I don't believe in newspaper fish wrappers. I have fishing friends and they wrap their fish in brown paper.

A NEWSPAPER — unlike a book which unfortunately is read by but few persons—is read by many. It is a great vehicle in a democratic land. It is a good as its community and certainly as good as its writers and producers.

It can do a whale of a lot of service for a community if it has integrity, quality, accuracy and wit. It can, and should, be trying to ever produce a better product.

ART BUCHWALD

Some Stories So Sad It's Hard Even To Put Them On Paper

WASHINGTON—Every once in a while we hear a true story that is so sad we can hardly write it. The other day we heard one about a friend of ours who lives in California. We shall call him Jake Kilduff to protect his identity.

Jake, who works in motion pictures, took up the sport of "karate" about 10 years ago. Karate is a Japanese defense system in which the use of the hands plays the major role. Callouses are built up on the hand in such a way that an experienced karate expert can break a brick or a two-by-four by just bringing the edge of his hand down on it.

LET IT BE SAID that Jake was in the class with the experts. He was a "black belt," which is pretty high in karate hierarchy and, while other husbands watched television or read Playboy, Jake used to spend his time in the cellar breaking blocks of wood with his hand.

Jake's wife thought it was a lot of foolishness and a waste of money (he had invested $3,000 in karate lessons).

"SOMEDAY, MOTHER," he said, "you're going to be happy I know karate. It is the greatest self-defense ever devised by man."

After 10 years went by even Jake started to doubt he would have a chance to use his skills. But then the big day came.

He was driving along a Los Angeles freeway on a Sunday afternoon with his wife when a sports car cut in front of him. Jake got mad and cut in front of the sports car. The man in the sports car got mad and cut in front of Jake.

Pretty soon they were shouting at each other and the man in the sports car yelled, "Pull off the freeway and I'll punch you in the nose."

JAKE WAS ELATED. All the years of practice and expense were finally going to pay off. His wife begged him to ignore the other man, but Jake rubbed his callouses against his chin and said, "Is he going to be in for a surprise!"

Jake pulled off the freeway and parked on a stretch of grass. The sports car driver pulled up in front of him and parked. The driver jumped out of his car and started walking towards Jake.

Jake studied him calmly. He was of medium build, not particularly heavy. It would probably take only one slash across the throat with his hand.

THE DRIVER MOVED forward, his right fist held back. "The guy is leaving himself wide open," Jake thought to himself. "Well, he asked for it."

Jake reached down to unfasten his car safety belt. It was stuck. He tried to unfasten it again. It was still stuck. The man reached Jake's car. Jake fought the belt desperately, but to no avail. The driver of the other car reached into the window and hit Jake in the mouth, knocking out two teeth.

As Jake continued trying to get his belt free, the man returned to his car, got back in, and drove off.

Today is Monday, Oct. 19, the 293rd day of 1964 with 73 to follow.

The moon is approaching its full phase; the morning stars are Jupiter, Mars and Venus; the evening stars are Saturn and Jupiter.

On this day in history:

In 1781, the Lieutenant General of the British Army—Lord Cornwallis — surrendered his troops at Yorktown, Va.

In 1814, the "Star-Spangled Banner" was sung at Baltimore for the first time.

In 1936, three newspaper reporters ended their round the world airplane race when H. R. Ekins landed at Lakehurst, N.J., after 18 days.

In 1954, Great Britain and Egypt signed an agreement providing for the withdrawal of British troops from the Suez Canal.

A though for the day—the German writer, Thomas A. Kempis, said: "Be not angry that you cannot make others as you wish them to be, since you cannot make yourself as you wish."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Three Players Fumble In Comedy Of Errors

We usually laugh at a player who loses an ace, and accuse him of taking it to bed with him, but the play is sometimes correct. It may have been Sir Walter Scott who wrote the stirring lines:

"Breathes there the man with soul so dead, who never has taken an ace to bed," and so on. Sir walter had just witnessed the hand shown today.

What do you say?

Answer: Bid one spade.

This is a very good hand, but it is not strong enough for a forcing bid of two spades. If partner cannot respond, you will not give up a game.

For Sheinwold's 36-page booklet " Pocket Guide to Bridge," send 50c to Bridge Book, Independent1Journal, P.O. Box 330, San Rafael.

West opened the deuce of hearts, an obvious singleton, but East decided not to play his ace. He knew he would be laughed at, but East was a canny Scot and was willing to take the tricks and let the credit go.

SURPRISED TO WIN

Declarer was somewhat surprised to win the first trick in dummy with the king of hearts but recovered in time to continue with the queen of hearts. Once more East played a low heart.

South discarded a low diamond and West ruffed. West returned a trump, fearing that it might cost a trick to lead away from either of his kings. South won with the king of spades and led a spade to dummy's ace to finish the job of drawing trumps.

HEART FROM DUMMY

Declarer then led another heart from dummy. This time East played his ace. South ruffed, and everybody laughed. Everybody, that is, except Sir Walter Scott (and the readers of this column).

South had already lost one trick to West's low trump, and South still had a losing diamond and two losing clubs. He eventually gave up these tricks and was down one.

The reason Sir Walter didn't laugh is that South could have made his contract if East had taken his ace of hearts at the first trick.

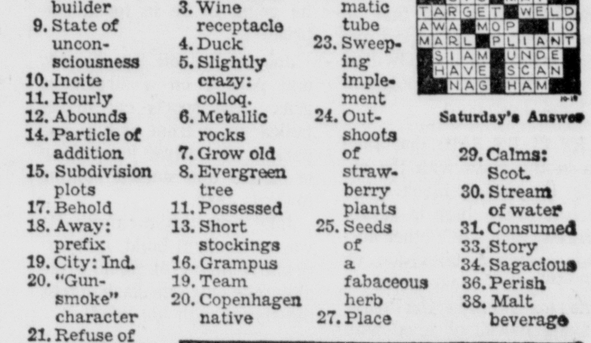

TAKES THE ACE

If East takes the ace of hearts and returns a heart, South discards a diamond. West ruffs, and the defense is off to a good start. West returns a diamond (as good a play as any), and South takes the ace.

South now draws trumps with the king and dummy's ace, after which he can safely cash dummy's two good hearts. He thus wins six trumps, two hearts, and two side aces for a total of 10 tricks.

East's actual defense limited dummy to one heart trick, so that South won only nine tricks in all.

• And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families is the Independent-Journal, COVERING 2 OUT OF EVERY 3 HOMES in the County.

• The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED.

• In the I-J, your sales message goes where the GREATEST NUMBER of BUYERS are.

• NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.

• The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.

WHERE DO THEY COME FROM?
(we refer to home buyers)

- The largest percentage of home buyers (71.9%)* who buy homes in the Novato Area are ALREADY living in Marin County.
- And the PRIME MEDIUM for reaching Marin families is the Independent-Journal, COVERING 2 OUT OF EVERY 3 HOMES in the county.
- The I-J daily circulation in Marin County is GREATER than that of the San Francisco Chronicle and the Examiner COMBINED.
- In the I-J, your sales message goes where the GREATEST NUMBER of BUYERS are.
- NO WASTE — NO HIGH-PRICED SPACE GOING TO NON-PRODUCTIVE AREAS.
- The Prime Market then, for home sales, is Marin itself . . . and the I-J Classified "gets home" to the people who buy the MOST HOMES in Marin . . . Marin families themselves.
- SOURCE: "A Survey on the Origins of Home Buyers in Marin County," conducted by the Marin County Abstract and Title Company.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Peanut Flour Is Being Used To Help Victims Of Hemophilia

VAN DELLEN

Peanut flour is a relatively new remedy for hemophilia. It is said to reduce clotting time by stimulating fibrin formation. Recently Dr. Mario V. Bisordi of Mount Vernon, N.Y., told of his experiences with five bleeders. All had been under his care for six to 15 years and he knew how much trouble they were having.

A boy of 6, for example, had 10 hemorrhagic episodes in less than a year. He had bled from a lacerated tongue when 10 months old and had his first transfusion as a youngster of 2. He was given peanut flour and had no trouble during the next five months.

THEN THE CHILD developed a cold, with congestion of the tonsils, which caused bleeding from a small vessel in the throat. The boy was hospitalized for 14 days and received transfusions daily until the bleeding stopped. Since then, he has been doing well.

The other hemophiliacs in the series are teen-agers and all are improving. Dr. Bisordi says they rebelled against swallowing seven to 22 level tablespoons of peanut flour daily. The substance was compressed into tablets, which were more acceptable. Time will tell whether this plan of treatment will prove to be the answer to hemophilia.

CONSIDERABLE progress has been made in the management of this hereditary disease and its victims need not live in fear of bleeding to death from scratches or bruises. Those surviving childhood can lead a near normal life by selecting a suitable career. Manual labor is not recommended because of the possibility of injury. It is better to learn a profession or other skill that carries little risk of accidents.

Twelve factors play a role in blood clotting, hence various bleeding disorders are possible. The hemophiliac is born with a deficiency of one or two of these blood clotting factors. Hemophilia A results from too little VIII and hemophilia B from too little IX. Treatment is aimed at supplying the specific deficiency by giving fresh blood or plasma containing the lacking substance.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

SUGAR AND CARBOHYDRATES

I.V. writes: Could a daily brandy cause sugar in the blood?

REPLY

Sugar always is present in the blood and the level goes up slightly whenever carbohydrates are consumed, including alcohol. On the other hand, alcoholics often have a low blood sugar level because they neglect to eat.

BRAIN MEMBRANE

S. S. writes: Please write about arachnoiditis — its cause, symptoms, and treatment.

REPLY

This is inflammation of the delicate membrane that covers the brain. The cause is not known, except when it follows injury or spread of infection from the nose or sinuses. Headache, visual disorders, and weakness or paralysis of various muscle groups may develop.

SONIC THERAPY

C. D. writes: Can gallstones be dissolved by sound?

REPLY

This is a possibility but anything strong enough to destroy gallstones might do the same to the gall bladder and liver. Surgical removal of the gall bladder and stones is the best solution to this problem.

NEGLECTED GOUT

E. H. writes: Could gout cause a chronic ulcer on a leg?

REPLY

Yes, but it is a late manifestation of a chronic, neglected gout. The ulcers are in the skin over joints.

Trustees Search For School Site

Lagunitus School District trustees will take one more look tomorrow at the problem of which site to choose for a new school in Woodacre.

Trustees declined to choose between two proposed sites last month and ordered an architect to look at another one.

On Oct. 8, they met with 100 members of the Woodacre Improvement Club, who had voiced objections to use of their clubhouse as a multi-purpose room if the school is built nearby.

District officials hope to be given the outcome of a vote by club member's before they act tomorrow night.

The board will meet at 8 p.m. tomorrow at Lagunitas School.

Jewish Community Center Enrolls 200

More than 200 children have been enrolled in the fall program of the Marin Jewish Community Center.

Activities range from arts and crafts to field trips, judo and French lessons. Further information may be obtained from youth worker Meg Mitchell at the center.

General Plan Due City Council

San Rafael's general plan, which got formal blessings from planning commissioners last week, goes before the city council tonight.

While no formal action is expected until at least one, and maybe more, public hearings have been held, this will be the start of the last steps toward final city adoption of the plan.

Planning consultant Daniel P. Coleman, who worked with colleague William E. Spangle in preparing the tentative plan, is expected to report to the council.

Afterwards, the agenda calls for councilmen to set a hearing date.

Also scheduled is a report from City Atty. David Menary Jr. on legal aspects of the city's proposed plan to build housing for senior citizens. The council earlier postponed decision on whether to put the plan to a vote of the people until after hearing Menary's report.

Other agenda items include several applications for encroachment permits, including one sought by Clear View Cable Systems of Fairfax to install underground television antenna cables.

The council will meet at 8 p.m. at city hall.

Inspection Due For Nike Site

Lt. Gen. Charles B. Duff, commander of the Army Air Defense Command, will arrive in Marin by helicopter Wednesday when he makes an inspection tour of the Nike Hercules site in Santa Venetia.

General Duff, on a two day visit of Bay Aera defense facilities, will also inspect the headquarters of the 28th Air Defense Command at Hamilton Air Force Base. This will be on Thursday.

His base during the visit will be at Fort Scott in San Francisco. After the stop at Hamilton, he will return to his headquarters at Colorado Springs, Colo.

"This survey that rates 'The Rogues' number one—do you suppose it might be a phony?"

Poll Gives Slight Edge To Pay TV

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The California Poll found that the electorate tends to approve pay-television but that a large portion of the voters are still undecided.

Marvin D. Field said his survey determined that 44 per cent of the voters oppose Proposition 15, 36 per cent are for it, and 20 per cent are still undecided.

The proposition would ban subscription television. Persons opposed to the measure say the public should be allowed to subscribe to pay TV if it wishes.

The poll reflects substantially the same pattern that it did a month ago.

MARIN PUPIL'S SHIP—The freighter Mayo Lykes has been adopted as a class project by sixth graders in Mrs. Alice B. Gateley's class at Oliver Hartzell School. Members of the class write the skipper and he answers with informative letters about his ship and its travels.

San Rafael Youngsters Adopt Ship

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Youngsters like to play with boats. Everyone knows that.

There should then be nothing surprising in the fact that Mrs. Alice B. Gateley's sixth graders at Oliver Hartzell School in San Rafael Elementary School District have adopted a boat as a class project.

The thing is that the boat is 495 feet long, weighs 11,334 tons and is now en route from Manila to Saigon.

The boat the sixth graders adopted is a full-fledged freighter hauling a mixed cargo of zinc, spulphur, flour, soda, carbon black, rice, tin plate, auto tires, corn meal, rubber, cars, trailers, lube oil and one airplane.

Under a program sponsored by the Propeller Club of the United States, pupils such as those in Mrs. Gateley's sixth grade may "adopt" a ship.

They follow its course through trade routes of the world by correspondence with the ship's captain.

The Hartzell pupils have adopted the S. S. Mayo Lykes, one of 53 ships owned by Lykes Brothers Steamship Co. The ship, built in Baltimore, Md., last year, has made four voyages, one to Northern Europe and three to the Mediterranean.

The ship's fifth voyage is to the Far East. It has already called at Manila and is on the way to Saigon. It will then go to Inchon, Yosu, Pusan, Korea, and Kobe, Nagoya, Shimizu and Yokohama, Japan.

In his first letter to the pupils, dated Sept. 16, Master Omas L. Brown describes himself, six-feet-one, 205 pounds, gray hair and 49, and his ship.

The Mayo Lykes has a 69-foot beam, 10,000 horsepower and a normal speed of 19 knots.

The ship has a crew of 47—13 officers, 2 cadets and 32 unlicensed personnel.

In addition to the letter, the skipper mailed a post card Oct. 5 from Manila and literature about Lkyes Brothers Steamship Co. There was also a photo of the boat.

The adopt-a-ship plan is designed to help pupils in their study of geography and to give them an appreciation of the American merchant fleet.

TELEVISION REVIEW

'The Fantasticks' Is Good Entertainment

By RICK Du BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — "The Fantasticks," which NBC-TV presented last night, has played for four-and-a-half years off-Broadway, earned its 57 backers a 1,200 per cent profit, made more than 1 million dollars and had over 200 productions in this country and abroad.

The musical story, which had a television cast of Bert Lahr, Stanley Holloway, Richardo Montalban, Susan Watson and John Davidson, is so simple that it hardly seem the kind to promote such colossal statistics. Fancifully and whimsically, it tells of a boy and girl whose fathers bring them together by building a wall between their yards and pretending opposition to their love. The lovers, however, learn that a fake abduction attempt planned by the fathers and a bandit is a trick, and the angry boy leaves to seek adventure in the world. Later he returns, and all concerned are wiser in the ways of understanding.

I have no basis of comparison with the play because I kept avoiding it, harboring the suspicion that it would be as fey, precarious and embarrassing as having a tailored poodle around the house.

And now I am sorry, because last night's one-hour video abridgement, in color, was a beguiling experience, romantic, funny, tuneful, personal, and with an intelligence of lyrics and script to suggest an added depth, which is not really as important as the simple pleasure. The plot was suggested by a play by Edmond Rostand, author of "Cyrano de Bergerac."

For all its assets, "The Fantasticks" is basically so thin and fragile a piece, from its unexceptional "wisdom" to its content, that its success rests almost wholly on striking a perfect theatrical mood — and that is what its cast and producer-director, George Schaefer, achieved last night, as the world wise narrator and bandit, Montalban displayed a flair and mood-setting control that compensated for his occasional vocal deficiencies. As the lovers, Miss Watson and Davidson were so appealing and good to listen to that both certainly stamped themselves as comers.

I guess I don't have to tell you too much about the headliners, do I? Snipping away at an imaginary plant during his imaginary gardening, Lahr remarked, "Hmmm . . . too much mersture."

And during the abduction, upon being struck by an arrow you-know-where, he magnificently clasped his hand to his heart. The video season certainly had one of its high moments in the teaming of Lahr and Holloaway. And among the songs by Tom Jones and Harvey Schmidt were the bittersweet "Try to Remember" and "Soon It's Gonna Rain," the latter a haunting work of double meaning which Barbra Streisand has recorded memorably.

The Hallmark firm, which sponsored "The Fantasticks," interrupted it only once, at the midway point, for a commercial, saving the others for the beginning and the end.

As a spokesman for Bob Precht, producer of CBS-TV's Ed Sullivan shows, says the contract of comedian Jackie Mason for five more appearances on the program was cancelled after the performer's guest shot last night. The spokesman said that among the reasons were the comedian's gestures, manner and deviation from material agreed upon.

Dinah Shore had an hour musical special on ABC-TV Saturday night, and her hair stylist should get 50 per cent of her take. The theme of the show was teenagers as seen by the older generation. The guests were Rose Marie, who is a grand and exuberant lady, George Gobel and David Janssen. Miss Shore and Rose Marie were the best, and the hour was amiable when it stuck to music. But the sketches were woeful, and the unending plugs for Janssen's series almost brought things to a dead stop.

Drake Gets Model U.N. Role As Russ

Sir Francis Drake High School's delegation will represent the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics at a "Model United Nations" at University of California in Berkeley next February.

"Drake has a handicap this year," said Keith Lester, adviser to the delegation, "in that we represent the USSR." He expressed hope, however, that the Drake students will be able to repeat their performance of the last two years, in both of which the San Anselmo school was named the most outstanding delegation at the conference.

Last year Drake represented both United Arab Republic and Central African Republic.

Dates of the "model UN" are Feb. 18 through 20.

Found Asleep In Auto At Bridge

A 21-year-old Kentfield man was found asleep in his car near the north end of the Golden Gate Bridge at 4:30 a.m. Saturday with the motor running, the headlights on and a "farewell" note next to him on the seat.

The California Highway Patrol booked David Allen Pekonen of 14 Terrace Avenue at county jail prior to emergency commitment to the state hospital at Napa.

Pekonen's car was parked at the edge of the southbound approach to the Marin County end of the bridge. He reportedly told patrolmen he had intended to jump from the bridge but changed his mind.
